

THE EVIDENCE.

tham, the defendant, a trained horticulturist. In came to Limerick and pioneers, Messrs Sexton, Messrs. Wickham. He ick in July, and visited Mr. Wickham. He found ld suit his purpose, to et garden and general ined to Mr. Wickham make any deal without licitors. Until he had he had not agreed to any commission. The even discussed until a Mr. Russell came to t interview Mr. Wick-price of £3,000 for the d they belonged to a n. Negotiations for the en continued, while wit-o obtain the release of a order to conclude the Mr. Wickham began to r, and said if one was e would have to re-iet January 14th witness at his money was re-d Mr. Wickham £2,000. dertook to convey the Dundon and Treacy, sol-ss subsequently learned was rejected. Witness e time that the plaintiff Mr. John Hartigan, of ntiff also told him that l instructed him to sell. offer witness pressed to mpleted, as he wished to k before the Spring. and the possibility of a ote. Before witness re-d in February, he visi- and told him that as (Wickham) was concerned er interested in Water-

4. Vocal Solos — (a) Recit.: "Deeper and Deeper still"; Aria: "Waft her Angels" (Jephtah), Handel; (b) "Sound an Alarm" (Judas Maccabeus), Handel; (c) "The Stranger's Grave," Harty—Mr. W. F. Watt.

5. Trio No. 3 in C minor, op. 1, No. 3, Beethoven; Allegro con brio; Menuetto, Quasi allegro; Finale, Prestissimo—Mr. M. H. Franklin, Mus.B., Mr. G. Metcalfe, Mr. J. A. Haydn.

OBITUARY

Late Mr J. Bourke

We very much regret to announce the death of Mr. Joseph A. Bourke, which occurred at his residence, "Auburn," Ernis Road, this morning. He had been ill for some time, and had reached a fairly good age. Mr. Bourke was a well-known and respected citizen, and the last, of a small group of friends, whose social companionship and varied anecdote was a tonic for gloom. They always saw the bright side of life. He was for a long number of years Manager of Messrs. Martin McGuire & Sons, flour millers and corn merchants, Francis Street, Limerick. A man of sound views and business ability, he was immensely popular. His death will be generally regretted in the city, and sympathy extended to his widow in her sorrow.

The remains will be removed at 9.30 o'clock to-night to St. Munchin's Church, and the funeral will take place to-morrow to Mount St. Lawrence, after Requiem Mass at 11 o'clock.

CONCRETING SCHEME.

DEPUTATION TO MAYOR.

Canon O'Dwyer was a very executive, and he had patients, both at Mental Hospital. carried him a little in the interest of future Mr. Bourke R.M.S. or his subordinates.

Mr. Bourke said to ignore the R.M.S. discipline. On visit he did not go to Assistant R.M. Irwin's house concert.

Chairman—The matter got over by Mr. Bourke or anyone must be regular. very grateful to their services agents, and in the all members of be invited.

The matter th

DAIL EIL

Limerick

Mr. Gerald M. cere congratulated in his native city pointment to the Clerk of Dail Eil late Mr. Bryan enue, and brot Secretary of Me bacon curers. I vice of the old Mr. McCarn with Messrs. Shaw.