

It does not arise in that then. We are all very glad to learn he will be back at work again. Librarian said he would arrange for the Newcastle West Library re-opening during the coming week.

FATAL FALL FROM LORRY

A man named John Fitzgerald, of Duane, Millstreet, lost his life under tragic circumstances on Tuesday. It appears that he fell from a lorry near the bridge, and the rear wheel of the lorry passed over his body, killing him instantly. The deceased was aged about 40 and was married. He had four children.

Rev. S. Frewen, P.S.M.; Rev. R. Kelly, S.J., Limerick; Rev. J. O'Sullivan, S.J., do.; Rev. T. Corcoran, Dublin; Rev. Father Finbarr, M., Ennis; Rev. Father Joachim, M., Rev. Father Aloysius, Limerick; Rev. Dom Winoc Mertens, O.S.B., Stal Priory; Rev. T. Madigan, R., Limerick; Rev. M. J. Brosnan, R., do.

The chief mourners were: Very Rev. Edward Bourke, P.P., O'Connell's Co.; Patk. Devaney, M.A., Kilkenny; Devaney, Toomevara; Edward Burke, Killeen; Nenagh; Joseph Burke, L.P.S.L. (nephews), Mrs. Kath. Hayes, Killaloe; Miss Mary Darcy, Nenagh; Mrs. E. McInerney, B.A., Edenry; Mother Geraldine Devaney, Hill Convent, Limerick; Misses Cecile and Josie Devaney, Toomevara; Mrs. Coghlan, John, Edward, Edward Coghlan, Mrs. Edward Bourke, Joseph Bourke, James Hayes, Killaloe; S. Flanagan, Templeberry and Mrs. Gleeson, Knockback (relatives).

Assault cards were received from Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, Josephine Moran, N.T., O'Connell's Co.; W. and J. Lee, the Gaelic League and the na h-Eireann branches, Kate, Bob and Mrs. Hall; the Castleconnell Camogie Club, George and Mai Lee, teachers and pupils, Abane National School; Mary, John, Rody, Katie and family; P. and Margaret Cantwell, John and Mrs. Fitzgibbon, Misses Mary and Josephine Devaney, Mrs. Marianne Devaney, Mr. and Mrs. Eric McInerney, Patrick Devaney, Grace Devaney and Miss Stasia Devaney, William Devaney, Joe and Mary, and Katie Coughlan, Kathleen and family, S. McCormack, Delia Keane, the sisters of the parish, Mr. and Mrs. P. Conway, James Coughlan.

be conducted by Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.S.S.R., and Rev. Fr. Gormely, C.S.S.R., and it is expected that the spacious church will be packed to capacity for the Retreat Mass and special evening devotions throughout the three weeks. The members of the Boys' Division are making their Retreat this week and the attendance is exceptionally good.

THE HOME COMING

— 00 —

GREAT WELCOME FOR CHAMPIONS

Limerick turned out en masse on Monday night to give a rousing welcome home to the All-Ireland champions, both seniors and minors. Memorable scenes were witnessed and the joy of the people was unrestrained. A special descriptive report of the public welcome will appear in our weekend edition. The reception in Cruise's Hotel will also be fully recorded in the same issue.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

When Ballina Urban Council sought possession of a cottage from Patrick Joseph Walshe, St. Muredach's Terrace, the defendant's solicitor submitted that the summons was bad by reason of the fact that it was signed by Mr. John Clarke, P.C., the Vice-Chairman of the Council, who were the plaintiffs. District Justice Guy held that the summons was bad on the face of it, and marked the case D.W.P.

MORE BODIES WASHED ASHORE

Five bodies have been washed ashore, one at Annagh Head, Belmullet; one at Geesala, Belmullet; two at Fell and one at Doolga. Nothing was found on them to lead to their identification.

DEATH.

Carmody—On this morning, September 4th, Thomas Carmody, at his residence, 18, Wolfe Tone Street, Limerick, died. Deeply regretted. R.I.P. Remains will be removed on this (Wednesday) evening to St. Michael's at 9 p.m. and taken to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery on Friday at 3 o'clock.