

atches.
The round of the South Board Football Championship will be Ballylanders on Sunday, June 17th. Ballylanders will meet Kilbehenny on Sunday, June 24th. Ballylanders will play Garryspillane. At Ballylanders on Sunday, the 30th inst., the Ballylanders will play each other. This round will apply to the losers also. Ballylanders, Galbally, and Mr. Michael Ballylanders, are the respective

T.A.A.
The 1st Branch of the Juvenile T.A.A. will have their excursion on Sunday. The beautiful scenic Glen of Aherlow will be the scene, and the little ones are looking forward to the outing with great anticipations.

Excursions.
The Farmers' Federation will hold their annual excursion on June 29th and the Heart Sodality's outing will be on July 14th.

Work.
The work of the threatened coal shortage is being met by the people in the village and district by taking advantage of the present low price of cutting turf. The amenities of the hills, after a long lapse, are being experienced again by many people and the pleasure at this pleasant task is daily increasing.

Weddings.
The wedding of Miss Connery, extensive farmer, Ballylanders, was married in the University Hall, Dublin, to Miss Kitty O'Connell, Ballyagran. The ceremony was officiated by Rev. T. McNamara, Ballylanders. The bride was attended by her bridesmaids, Miss Maisie Walsh, and the best man, Mr. Patrick Connery, brother of the groom. All wish the happy couple many years of wedded bliss.

Reserve Force.
A few from the district are being trained in the unwillingness to serve their country in case of emergency by the Reserve Force at the barrack. Some are undergoing training and others are waiting to be called.

Mrs. Treacy.
The death of Mrs. Treacy, Ballylanders, occurred at her residence on Wednesday. The remains were removed to Ballylanders and after Mass next day the funeral took place at Ballylanders. There was a large attendance and the local clergy "Memoriam" and all classes of notices and printing apply to the "Advertiser," Ltd. Quick service.

tion that endeared him to those who knew him. As he leaves a widow and five young children to mourn his loss, his death, at a comparatively early age, causes a very sad bereavement. The interment took place in the local cemetery on Monday. Rev. T. Wall, P.P., and Rev. D. O'Keeffe, C.C., read the prayers at the graveside.

Intermediate Examinations

About 30 pupils from the Rathkeale Secondary School sat for the Intermediate and Leaving Certificate Examinations at the Carnegie Library Hall, which was the local centre. The examinations commenced on Tuesday. The Superintendent was Siobhan Ni Mainin, B.Com., H.Dip.E., Kilrush, Co. Clare.

BRUREE NOTES

(From Our Correspondent).

Obituary.

The death occurred recently, at his residence, Garrouse, Bruree, of Mr. M. Carroll. Deceased had reached a fine old age and enjoyed good health right up to the end. The late Mr. Carroll was a member of an old and respected family, kind and unassuming and a good neighbour.

The Funeral.

The large gathering of people who accompanied the remains to Bruree Church and funeral to Shannavogha was striking evidence of the esteem in which deceased was held. Rev. Father O'Connell, C.C., Dromin (cousin), assisted by Rev. Father O'Dea, P.P., Dromin, and Rev. Father O'Donnell, C.C., Bruree, officiated at the graveside. To the members of the family we tender our sympathy.

Athletics.

At Limerick Co. Athletic and Championship Sports, which were held at Kilmallock on Sunday, May 26th, I am pleased to record the success of the members of Bruree Athletic Club as follows:—M. Collins, second place high jump, long jump and hop, step and jump; S. Dunworth, first place in long jump, second, 440 yards; J. Houlihan, first place, hop, step and jump, second 16 lb. shot and second in 56 lbs. over bar; M. Micks, first place, 56 lbs. over bar; James Noonan, first place, 880 yds., second place in one mile; Jer. Simcox, first place 100 yards (confined to youths Kilmallock district, under 14 years of age).

Bright Outlook.

With such an array of athletic talent in the district I can well anticipate a good season for our athletic club provided, of course, that each and every member will pay attention to training.

... scene of reveling to the village. was packed out in people of all ages coming from even enjoy the many and provided.

Fancy Dress Parade.

A colourful feature and one which attracted attention, was the Fancy Dress Parade, which took place on Sunday afternoon. Over forty took part in the parade and the amount of skill and ability displayed in the making of the costumes was winners were accorded as they marched to receive their prizes.

Miss P. Kennedy, Hightown, very aptly symbolized the legend, "Burn More," Miss Madden, as "Hitler," next best, while the third in favour was Sergeant's daughter, depicting ### Tug o' War Competition.

The strong, silent and boisterous, more vociferous, were gaged in hundreds to war competition, at Knockroe and the O'rielly Castle must with the noise of the parish representative team, were acclaimed captain of the victor Paddy Ryan, was taken of his delighted admiration arena, tempestuous cheering the hero on his triumph. This six-foot, bulky sportsmanhood, who acted as to the team, and whose riam fired his men maintained the athletic numerous members of Limerick and Tipperary members of the team Madden, D. Kennedy, Namara, R. Hayes, E. O'Callaghan, F. Nealon M. Murnane.

Hurlers' Victories

For the past two seasons hurlers have been engaged in ship fixtures and on both have been victorious. On Sunday last our junior team against Herbertstown 4-1. On the previous interest was centred on the minor hurling competition local minors and Bruff played in St. John's Park, proving their superiority on 4-1.

the welcome drop of much better. Regarding it would be well for gro