day night at the Kilbehenny lool, Dr. Lee, C.C., Knockred an eloquent lecture on nd" to a very large audience. O'Grady, C.C., Kilbehenny, introduced the lecturer. A iks was passed to Dr. Lee fine and interesting lecture Rev. P. J. O'Grady for preig Market. e seen from our advertising this issue, the Mitchelstown ig market will be, held on next, 20th November, and as supplies are assured! The with pig producers at the ns to be that the buyers will pigs on the named days and hey have to refuse all the at the weekly scales. This y unfair and something must However, the somewhere.

right itself one day would want to do so immeers Defeated. rth Cork minor hurling final, ldcastletown on Sunday, Sean eated the locals but only by gin. The locals were without of three of their regular d due to this, I believe, they ed, as all around they were Sean Clarach attack and only ch team are. Mr. P. Casey, Kilmacow Churchyard.

occurred at her residence, itch stown, of Mr. Thomas a very short illness fortified of Mother Church. Deceased opular with all sections of ity in the district. He was lso extremely popular and vn in this area.

9th inst. the funeral from entative of all classes and Gaynor, Rathkeale, where her mother is still residing. Besides Mrs. Mooney two other sisters Mrs. Hennessy, Creaves, Shanagolden, and Mrs.: Coughlan, Pallaskenry-are in the teaching profession.

A brother is Mr. T. Gaynor, author of a book of verse and a number of short stories published in the U.S.A., where he is a professor of Literature. Another brother is Mr. Gerald Gaynor, residing outside Dublin. He served through the Great War and was with forces in Germany during the occupation of the Rhineland. Sincerely Regretted

The sad news the first, and we sincerely hope the last of its kind to come to this district—caused a terrible sheek. in Rathkeale, where Mrs. Lewis cor her early years. Her death is especially regretted by her former schoolmates, with whom she was a great favourite. General Sympathy

General and heartfelt sympathy is, extended to the family and relatives in their sorrow, especially to her husband and her aged mother, to whom the tragic death of this young woman in her health and prime is a severe cross.

Labour Panel

Mr. Michael Kerins, General Secre- so three or four cars tary, Cottage Tenants and Rural Wor- with each other. One kers Association, has been appointed on turned, pinning the four the Standing Committee Labour Panel neath. The parties, I in accordance with the Seanad Electoral with minor injuries. (Panel Members) Bye Elections Act, 1940.

Ballingarry Active

In a census of the Parish of Ballin-If the game out of the fire in garry, made by the Local Emergency seconds. We wish every Committee, it was revealed that there Charleville and trust that are 51 families, having 167 children ungs are in store for this team | der 16 years of age, who will be depen and I cannot pass without dent on the Emergency Committee for ng our locals on their fine the provision of food in case this country nst seasoned hurlers such as becomes involved in war.

• n H.C., was an impartial The local Guild of Muintir na Tire at Ballingarry have decided to call a meet- drive organised by the 1 ing of all those having graves in Kilma- I.S.F. and a most en cow Churchyard with a view to taking ment resulted. A featur steps to put it into a decent and sani- ings was that many o tary condition. The meeting will be held during the coming week at the premises uniforms. of the Kilfinny Creamery.

Another Local Death.

During the past few weeks death has T. Costelloe and J. O'E Messrs. M. and J. Burke, been taking a steady toll in this district. Miss Egan, B.A., and D. The latest to be called to his reward is Messrs. J. Cleary, B. Mr. J. Carroll, Well Lane, who died on C'Sullivan; consolation Saturday, 9th inst. Deceased was 75 Sheedy and D. Body. years of age. An honest and industrious of the drive Mr. D. ( man, he was a member of an old Rath- who acted as M.C., to the family burial ground keale stock. The remains were removed by was of huge dimensions, to St. Mary's Church, Rathkeale, on Sunday, and the funeral was held to the e district, thus testifyng to New Cemetery on Monday. Rev. P. C. ty in which the Burke family Lynch, C.C., read the prayers at the tative of the various that area. Rev. J.A. Cotter, graveside. stown, officiated at the ob- Severe Gale.

profit by the various h the use and preservation Foreign Missions.

At Cratlee Schoolho night some lantern slic The entertainment was Foreign Missions and th the missionary life and v in the mission field are Mostly every house in represented, which shov disposition of the Cratle Damage by Storm.

The storm that broke on Monday night caus Accompanied by a terri rain it continued unal the night. Trees were main road from Tulla diverted to the bye-roa blown off houses, and in whole roofs of outhouse Narrow Escape.

While proceeding in a sion on Saturday evenir a narrow escape from s appears the light of a reflected on a bridge th over, and on seeing it a and set back into other

DROMCOLL

(From Our Corre

The L.S.F.

A crowded house par appeared for the first ti

Prize Winners.

The winners were: thanks. Parish Council.

- Some months ago : was formed at Dromce parish. After a good ances at the meetings