

F. J. Dempsey, Lisieux Dalkey, stated that prayers for peace were offered up during the Novena of the Little Flower of Jesus.

... holy thought, good priest, prompted you to say the Little Flower's Feast for peace should pray.

... nised she would spend her time in doing good on earth; ... making on her words sublime ... now to hope give birth.

... le Flower ever loved ... 'ame' of victories, ... heart to pity will be moved ... r anxieties

... ath its victories," 'tis said, ... leaven's Queen of Peace ... o to end this carnage dread ... asten war's surcease.

... rvent prayers to Heaven ascend ... extreme distress, ... Therese her aid will lend ... ill our efforts bless.

... ple now their hearts uplift ... plication strong, ... od may grant the precious gift ... ting peace ere long.

WORK OF BRILLIANT LIMERICK MAN

An Irish play, "Leigear Luimnighe," will be broadcast from Radio Eireann at 8.50 p.m. on Friday next, 27th inst.

This piece is the work of a very brilliant Limerick man, Mr. F. Gerard Spencer, and has been specially written in commemoration of the 1690. Siege of Limerick.

Those who know Mr. Spencer's great literary gifts and general educational attainments will be looking forward to a splendid treat, and we are quite sure they will not be disappointed.

THE LATE BISHOP OF ROSS

The death of the Most Rev. Dr. P. Casey, Bishop of Ross, is much regretted by his many friends in Abbeyfeale (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). In his student days, Dr. Casey spent much of his time with his uncle, the patriot pastor whose monument stands in the Square of the town in recognition of his life-long efforts to secure the abolition of landlordism and national independence. It used to be said by those who seemed to know that from his student days came the prototype of one of the characters of a well-known book of the late Canon Sheehan.

FATALLY INJURED

A 23-year-old farm labourer, Michael Aherne, of Shanakill, Kilcorney, received fatal injuries when he was kicked by a horse at Kilcorney on Thursday last. He was immediately removed to the South Infirmity, Cork, but he succumbed on Saturday.
