

ted missing. That did not mean, however, the letter stated, that Sergeant O'Leary was killed or wounded.

In a German Hospital.

News has now been received in Glin that Sergeant O'Leary is in hospital in Germany. A message to that effect has come over the German wireless and official confirmation has come to hand since.

Old Age Pensions.

During the week Glin Old Age Pensions Committee held its monthly meeting. Very Rev. Canon O'Carroll, P.P., president, presided. Also present were:—Rev. Father McCarthy, C.C.; Messrs. D. Geoghegan, Wm. Dillane, J. Culhane, J. Hogan, M. J. O'Shaughnessy (acting clerk). Five claims were before the Committee for consideration. Two were passed for full pension, one adjourned, and two refused, on the ground of means. It was stated that the election of clerk would take place at the next meeting of the Committee, to be held on the second Wednesday of January.

KILMEEDY-FEENAGH NOTES

(From Our Correspondent).

Congratulations.

Her many friends were very pleased to note the success of Miss Anna Georgina O'Grady at the recent National University examinations, at which she obtained the M.A. with honours. This highly-talented young lady is daughter of Mr. John O'Grady, Principal Teacher, Kilmeeady, and Mrs. O'Grady, Principal Teacher, Feenagh.

Marriage.

Her academic distinctions did not deter Miss O'Grady from venturing out on the sea of matrimony. Sincerest congratulations are offered to herself and her husband, Mr. Augustine Connaughton, B.E., B.Sc.

L.S.F. Collection.

On Sunday, December 1st, the Kilmeeady Section of the L.S.F. made a house-to-house collection for the purpose of defraying expenses which may be incurred while performing their duties. The collectors met with a very generous response and they are sincerely grateful to all those who subscribed.

Recent Deaths.

The deaths took place during the week-end of Mr. John Coleman, Carhamore, Kilmeeady, and Mr. J. Fitzgerald, Ballinruan. The interments at Castletown and Kilmeeady, respectively, were largely attended.—R.I.P.

Supervisor, Mr. James Power. (A detailed account of the meeting, unavoidably held over, will appear in a future issue).

Ceillidhe....

Mitchelstown Gaelic League had a successful Ceillidhe in Finn's Hall, Kildorrery, on Wednesday night last. The surrounding district was well represented and all and sundry enjoyed the ceillidhe. Music was supplied by Mick Aherne's "Special Ceillidhe Band."

Late Michael Fleming.

The death occurred in Dublin last week of Mr. Michael Fleming, son of Mr. James Fleming and the late Mrs. Fleming, James Street, Mitchelstown. The deceased was well known in Mitchelstown and Dublin, where he resided for some years past. The funeral in Dublin was fully representative of all sections of the community and many locals made the long journey to be present at the obsequies. R.I.P.

Mitchelstown Pig Market.

The December pig market was held on Wednesday last and a full clearance was effected. Fat pigs were sold quickly and stores were in keen demand at around recent prices.

KNOCKADERRY NOTES

(From Our Correspondent).

Obituary.

The death of Mr. W. Treacy took place at his residence, Ballinacrouga, on Sunday last. The deceased was very popular in the locality. He was a member of the Clouncagh Creamery Committee, of which his father, the late Thomas Treacy, was one of the first chairmen. The deepest sympathy is felt for his bereaved widow and son.

The Bazaar.

The bazaar opened in the Village Hall on Sunday night and there was a very large attendance. There was a big assortment of prizes displayed and the winners at the wheel of fortune and other games were very pleased with the trophies which they were taking home.

Question Time.

A question-time competition was a feature of Monday night's entertainment. The competitors were Messrs. E. Baggott, J. Murphy, J. Liston, C. Mahony, J. Mulane, M. O'Donnell, T. Hickey, Miss H. Murphy. Messrs. Liston and Mahony tied for first place and divided the prize. There will be other interesting competitions during the week.