The following resolution was unanim-ously passed at a meeting of the Parish Council held on the 13th inst:—"This Committee are of the opinion that large quantities of essential foodstuffs, such as wheat and oats, should not be concentrated in a few areas, but should be distributed on a county or, if possible, a district basis, as by so doing it would make wheat, especially, more available in case of emergency, and we request the Government to give the matter its attention."

Bull Inspection.

The annual autumn bull inspection was held at Adare. Seven animals were presented, out of which six passed. The following are the names of the successful owners:—T. Shire, 2; James Smyth, 1; P. Madigan, 1; Denis Murphy, 1; Peter O'Brien, 1.

GLIN ITEMS

(From Our Correspondent).

L.S.F. Dance.

On Sunday night next a grand dance will be held in Glin under the auspices of the Local Security Force. Special music will be provided and it is expected that the function will receive a wide measure of support.

Coursing.

The Glin Coursing Club appointed Mr. James Meehan as judge and Mr. Michael Murphy as slipper for the forthcoming meeting in October.

Knight of Glin.

The Knight of Glin and Madame Fitzgerald are at present on a visit to the Earl of Meath at Kilruddery Castle.

First Aid.

The local branch of the Red Cross has decided to hold first aid lectures weekly.

Regretted Death.

The death of Mrs. Julia Dalton, Knockdown, Athea, which took place during the week, has occasioned widespread regret and sorrow. She had family connections with Glin and deep sympathy is felt for the family in their bereavement.

Marriage.

The marriage took place in Glin Parish Church of Mr. John Prenderville, Lis-towel, and Miss Bridget Mangan, Cahera, Glin. Very Rev. Canon O'Carroll officiated, with Nuptial Mass.

Sports of the parish of Mitchelstown held at the Athletic Grounds a very close and exciting events witnessed by a large crowd of spectators. There was a large number of Brothers present and an excellent large number of school boys from schools of the parish. The Mitchelstown Brass and Reed Band attended and discoursed a choice selection of music during the afternoon.

Wedding Bells.

On Wednesday, 11th inst., two well-known Cork and Dublin families were united in the bonds of matrimony when Mr. Michael Gerard, M.P.S.I., eldest son of Mrs. K. Lower Cork Street, Mitchelstown, late William Murphy, M.P.S., married Miss Maisie Brooks of St. Helen's Road, Booterstown, Dublin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Dunlea, C.C., with Mass and Papal Blessing. The bride was Miss Rena Murphy, sister of the bridegroom, and the best man was Kevin Brooks, sister to the bride. An unusual feature of the floral display was a bouquet of heather sent by the bride's aunt from Scotland by 'plane. The bridegroom is well known in this area and is extremely popular in the district. The newly weds were recipients of numerous and costly presents. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, which was attended by friends of both parties. The happy couple left later in the afternoon on a motor tour of Ireland on the following day. I extend hearty felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. Murphy with every wish for their future happiness.
