

& MARYVILLE. DUBLIN. es of City). SPITALS vious Illness, and orders. a Century. ATMENT. ensive Grounds. PERINTENDENT. glas 11, causing some con- s of the district is eys are likely to far the money rds does not fur- . In some centres during the past per lb., while in a sold at 14. In o supplies will be ish markets from rish birds should nterested parties at rumours in cir- to depress the far as to insinu- this country may entry into Great this is the ver- utterly devoid of ill will have his l costs, war or no urce of supply is this year, Irish ly realise a satis- he coming weeks.

NOTES

or six years won- en accomplished t under the Gov- eme. Several pro- taken advantage portions of their esult that these will soon be ren- be hoped that this ued and extended small holder as nted body yet mounted on an o n.p. chassis. An engine that gives brilliant performance with the lowest petrol consumption yet achieved for all round, day-to-day running. This new "Anglia" is the biggest, fastest, most comfortable 8 h.p. car you've ever handled. Do we sound unusually enthusiastic? PRICE at Work: £190 So will you be—once you've been at the wheel of this grand new Ford!

How's this for roominess—an convenience! Plenty of spac for your week-end luggage—and you can get it in without disturb ing the passengers on the re: seat. The spare wheel is hang and stowed away below the hinge luggage compartment floor.

LIMERICK MOTOR WORKS

LTD.,

WILLIAM STREET, LIMERICK

YOUR MAIN Ford DEALERS

GLIN ITEMS

(From Our Correspondent).

Obituary.

The death took place of Mrs. Julia Daly, member of an old Glin family, daughter of the late Mr. Daniel and Mrs. Wallace, Glin, and wife of Mr. Patrick Daly. She was grand-daughter of the late Mr. James Fitzmaurice, farmer, Ballyhahill, who in his early manhood was left for dead by British soldiers because he would not inform on the "White-boys." Mrs. Daly leaves a husband and family and a large circle of relatives to mourn her loss, and to them the deepest sympathy is extended.

Parish Council.

The fortnightly meeting of the Glin Parish Council did not take place last week owing to the illness of the Secretary (Mr. D. O'Leary) and other members.

Turkey Market.

At Glin turkey market the price paid was 1s. 3d. per lb.

Recent Marriages.

The marriage of Miss Mary Ita O'Connor, N.T., and Miss Madeline O'Connor, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Connor, farmers, Ballyguiltenean, Glin, to Mr. John Kelly, Ballygoughlan, Glin, and Mr. Michael Kennelly, Shanid, Shanagolden, took place in Glin Parish Church during the week-end. The happy ladies are members of the Red Cross Branch

FOYNES AND DISTR

(From Our Correspondent).

L.S.F. Dance.

The L.S.F. were out to make dance, a success and realisation of their wildest dreams. Matters were in the hands of a select comm Messrs. P. Carney, T. Costello, P. gerald, J. Histon, E. McCarthy, T. J. O'Connell, P. O'Shea, and M. All the Gardai rendered valuable- ance, but the palm must go to Det. Officer Handley for plenary's Dance patrons kept turning up un- hail could hold no more—and it mean one. Prominent in the as- was Dr. Agnes Nolan, medical offic this area. Jack Hayes and his lar band left nothing to be desired conclusion, Mr. P. Carney, Lead Group B, thanked everyone, and s was sure they all enjoyed them thoroughly, that is, if appearances ted at all.

Uniforms.

The first dozen of the quota of uniforms due to Foynes has arrived officers, of course, were supplied these. How resplendent they under the fairy lights as they d the progress of the dance last 8 night! But then, I expect it was much a case of the clothes mak- man, as, will we say, the direct of I learn their future patrols will h be carried out in uniform. Mr. T. Group Leader of A, tells me th