MR. JAMES DALY.

It is with feelings of deep regret we record the death of Mr. James Daly, 11 ODwyer Villas, which sad event took place on the 21st August. The deceased, who leaves a widow and two children to mourn his loss, was a staunch Gael and a popular member of Eire Og Hurling Club. He was second son of the late Mr. John Daly and Mrs. Daly, New Road, Thomondgate, and nephew of Mr.
 Michael Daly, B.C. "Jimmy," as he was known to his associates, was of a very modest and unassuming disposition and was very popular with a large number of acquaintances. The funeral to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery was large and representative.

POTATOES OF UNUSUAL SHAPE

While digging for potatoes in his cousin's garden at Kinard, Glin, County Limerick, Master John Dillon, 1 Shel-bourne Terrace, Thomondgate, Limerick, unearthed two strange looking specimens. The first bore a striking resemblance to a monkey's face, while the other was like a man's head, having holes marking the eyes, ears, mouth and nose.
