meeting held at Rathkeale on Tuesday evening. After the outlines of the scheme of organisation were explained by Supt. J. J. Cooney and Sergeant W. J. Keegan all present were divided according to their own choice into two groups—Group 'A' to act as auxiliary to the Army and Group 'B' to co-operate with the Garda Síochána.

The following were elected leaders:
Group 'A,' Mr. P. Roche, M.C.C., Group Leader; Mr. J. O'Leary, B.E., Deputy Group Leader. Group 'B,' Mr. J. G.
Power, Manager, Munster and Leinster Bank, Group Leader; Mr. R. Sheehy, Deputy Group Leader.

Each Group was then sub-divided into squadrons in charge of Squad Leaders.
Training will commence immediately.

Over 60 men from the Rathkeale area have enrolled for active service with the regular Army and Volunteer Forces.
Most of these recruits are already with the colours.

MISSIONARY EXHIBITION

Preparations are well advanced for the fifth National Missionary Exhibition to be held in Sligo from the 10th to the 18th of August. Most Rev. Dr. Doorly, Bishop of Elphin, will perform the opening ceremony. The object of the Exhibition is primarily to educate the public in the Foreign Missionary Apostolate of the Church.
