

... have a smashing side. Then nes's Gate claim to have the team year with only one newcomer, an international centre-half.
 Dundalk, Shelbourne and Water-have without a morsel of doubt teams than last year, but what of ck? Well an analysis of the personnel provides us with the a that Limerick will show an im-ment on last season. The Lime-Club must—it is essential—a stir. With the new band of s got together I for one do not records to be established. It may p into a shock side. If it fails a month's trial we'll perish on the for a good beginning means that s throughout the season is assured.

Limerick Signings.
 unexpected has happened with Davis not putting pen to paper so ad it can be taken for granted that chance of having Mick O'Mahony ing was dispelled on Monday morn-hen he accepted, rather reluctantly, from Waterford. I had a chat with ony, Leo Harte and John Johnstone eek-end, and all hope Limerick, for mental reasons anyhow, makes a in the League. Harte, although ng out in a Waterford trial last ng, may quit the game; though if ick is in need of his services he will help, otherwise he is not anxious to ogs. In Waterford Johnstone has d a big impression in training, and Kilcolgan fancy that a long standing forward problem has been solved. t back to the Limerick newcomers.

 McMahon will appear in goal, and y O'Mahony, at right full, will in the side. His partner is Healy, a back from Derry—a good, cont performer, but by no means a player. The half line is a tentative with Burns (Shelbourne), O'Neill ist Celtic) and Doyle (Gate). A tall -half, O'Neill would need to improve ld the bustling Clarke on Sunday The forward line is fairly useful.
 George Murray, understudy of Doran ) on the extreme right wing. In-Tommy Flynn, usually a centre for-who was with Grimsby Town before g Shelbourne. Joe MacAleer leads tback, with another ex-club mate of Hugh O'Connor (Sligo Rovers) at left. Tommy Foy, international r, figures on the left. On the whole eam is moderate. The forward line s to be the strongest unit. I am ful about the half-back line, but the are definitely solid.

Cowhey (First Anniversary)—In fond and loving memory of my dear husband, James Cowhey, Ballinaguile, Croagh, who died on August 27th, 1939.
 On whose soul, Sweet Jesus, have mercy. Masses offered.

In our hearts his memory lingers.
 But we know it's vain to weep; Tears of love can never wake him From his peaceful, happy sleep.
 —Inserted by his loving wife.

Howard (Sixth Anniversary)—In loving memory of my dear son, Gerard Nicholas, who died at Limerick on the 24th August, 1934. Our Lady of Limerick pray for him.
 Jesus called him—he was ready—
 To that home so bright and fair, Where he dwells amongst the Angels.
 He is waiting for us there.
 —Inserted by his fond mother, Anne Howard, Brooklyn.

Kirby (Sixteenth Anniversary)—In sad and ever-loving memory of David Kirby, Garryowen, who died on 20th

O'Donnell (Second Anniversary)—In sad and ever-loving memory of Mary O'Donnell, Post Office, Crecora, Limerick, who died on 20th August, 1933.
 Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on her soul. Masses offered.
 The flowers I laid upon her grave May wither and decay,
 But my love for her who lies beneath Will never fade away.
 In life I loved her dearly,
 In death I do the same.
 —Inserted by her fond friend, E.
 O'Connell, Newsagent, Crecora.
