will turn them yenow.

roup

3arry

which

e two

eneral

e had

make-

d into

would

about

CARROT SOUP Take good-sized carrots, large enions, arge the and celery if obtainable. Put, in a souce-Supt. pan with margarine, some chopped lean, ham and water. Let it simmer, skim thoroughly, and pass through sieve. Place again in saucepan, add some more margarine, and, if liked, a little sugar, and other seasoning. Boil up again, skim, and serve hot.

JUGGED BEEF.

Cut the beef in square picc s, put it into a deep jar, add to it three-quarier: of a pint of water, a little cayenne ise a pepper and salt; stick six cloves in oa y the large onion, and put al into the even ceed- for two and a haf hours. Ten minutes over before it is served put to it a little flour nding and margarine, and stir it up well; then has a set it in the oven again, and serve up, en in for the table. This is for two pounds c f the beef.

CAULIFLOWER AU GRATIN.

Cook a large cauliflower until tender when in boiling salted water. Then drain and of the plunge into cold water. Drain and dry onan, divide into small pieces, and place in a uncil, greased casserole. Cover with welloming well-seasoned white sauce, sprinkle over ation- Serve very hot.

TRIPE EN CASSEROLE.

11b, tripe, 3 carrots, 6 onions, 1 oz from margazine, 1 pint stock, salt, pepper, Melt the margarine in a casamo'e y was Slice the onions and carrots and fry them until brown. Cut the tripe into pieces about two inches square, add to the onions and margarine in the casserthe role with pepper and salt to taste, still He in the stock, cover closely and cook in to do a slow oven or over a low gas for at could least four hours.

lib. calf's liver.' 1 oz. dripping. 1 oz. t way flour, 2 onions, 1 apple, 1 potato, half ld get pint water or stock, sar and pepper.

Melt the dripping into a stewpan, cut the liver into small pieces and dip in istrict the flour, seasoned with pepper and salt. the pan and brown the remainder of the d. said flour. Add the stock or water gradually and stir until boiling. Return the liver f that to the pan and add the enions, potato and apple, cut up small. Simmer slowly thing for an hour, season and serve.

ABBEYFEALE GOLF CLUB

Results (Cup qualifiers) Master Wm. Harnett (11) - 63; A. Downey, B.A. (20)

across a field under fire when they would i, said not venture to stick their noses over the do his walls of it if real bullets were whistling rk go around their ears. So, they should never solicitor for the defendants, witness said feel sore about not being attacked during that defendant was a blacksmith and the course of these exercises. Personally used a place in his mother's yard for the There he had learned a lot about the exercises purpose of banding the wheels of carts. to be and it had cheered him considerably to Witness denied that he tried to prevent ed its ascertain what splendid work could be him from taking in water to the place in orking assistance to the Army and the country Mrs. Lyons (senior) said she was during that time. Had he been there the pay 2/# costs and 10/- expenses. existence. They would be of the greatest with a stick. rigade if the situation should ever arise that mother of the defendant and lived with para asser present assertion with acres, with with Gyllamore then kept him on until her death. He worked as butler for Mr and was also employed by Dr. McPolin as chauffeur. At present witness had no employment and was unable to get work. In reply to Mr. O'Malley, witness said that if he got employment now he would not give his wife anything, because she did not deserve it. Witness did not sign at the Employment Exchange for the

Mr. O Malley-I would ask your wor ship to adjourn this case. This woman has been put to the cost of issuing these summonses, and if you adjourn the case months imprisonment. generally with liberty to re-enter it would enable me to bring it on again when the expenses. defendant gets work.

Mr. Tynan said that when the case was able to pay.

A BAD CASE.

that the defendant had means. For the past seventeen or eighteen years he was written to him promising to take the merce charged William Hough, Ballinworking and he did not support his wife, insurance certificate and driving licence tubber, with drawing 8/- unemployment He could not compel him to get work, into Limerick for inspection and although assistance by false representations. but he did think it was a bad case from witness gave him every chance to do so ch a half a cupful of breadcrumbs and the every aspect, and only for the fact that he did not materialise. war, same quantity of grated cheese mixed plaintiff had been working hereslf she The Justice imposed a fine of £4 on the > do what was fair and reasonable. He motor lorry. would adjourn the case generally, with liberty to re-enter.

Mr. Tynan-Plaintiff left her husband defended. and refused to live with him and now. after seventeen years, she sues him.

Justice-I am not saying that all the blame is on defendant's side, but if he

The case was adjourned generally, with berty to re-enter.

ACTION FOR ASSAULT. Laurence Lyons, Cloverfield, summoned John Lyons, Cloverfield, for assault.

Same complainant had defendant's wife. Mrs. Mary Lyons, summoned for using language calculated to lead to a breach of the peace.

Complainant, in reply to Mr. T. M. Mitchell, solr., who appeared for him said that the defendant, John Lyons, was his uncle. Witness lived with his granddefendant coming into his grandmother's the engine was emitting excess fumes. yard. He threw in the gate and witness spoke to him and defendant then struck him and heat him. Witness was attended were a substantial Society and had a dant's farm on the 23rd May. by Dr. Power. Defendant was trying to which defendant lived until the death of his father. While defendant was beating witness Mrs. Lyons, defendant's wife, was encouraging him to beat him.

Cross-examined by Mr. D. J. O'Malley.

not present in court, and had sent not explanation. The Guards could get very the dance licence-I am only asking your that day.

court that as far as he was aware the tion. defendant was still carrying on business as a hackney driver.

vehicle licence; (2) failing to produce his hours. The Justice said he had no evidence certificate; (3) having no driving licence.

Sergeant Connolly said defendant had and together, and brown in a hot oven, would be put on the ratepayers. When first summons, £5 on the second and 2/6 he got work he should give something on the third.

towards the support of his wife and Kantoher Co-Operative Creamery Society children. He was merely asking him to were summoned for using a defective

Mr. J. J. Power, State Solicitor, prosecuted, and Mr. Martin Tynan, solicitor,

Sergeant P. J. Connolly, P.S.V. Inspector, said that on the 8th April he observed a lorry the property of the defendants being driven in Newcastle is working he should give her some help. West. He approached the driver, Patrick O'Hara, and told him that he wanted to of paying defendant different amounts of circle. Deceased was beloved inspect the vehicle. The driver did not unemployment assistance. object and witness then examined the Guard Mahoney said that the defendant cause of a naturally kind, unaffect lorry. He found that the left front was a farm labourer with a wife and disposition devoted to the constant spring was broken and all the springs family to support. He was in poor cir- cise of kind and benevolent acts. and shackles were badly worn. The foot- cumstandes. brake was completely ineffective on the Defendant was fined 2/6 and ordered to veyed from Limerick to $t. Mar right front wheel. The driver's cab was pay 6/- costs. insecure and was lifting off the chassis The Minister for Agriculture summoned occasions in the district have the number frame. The doors of the driver's cab James Greedon, Sugar Hill, Templeglanwere insecure and rattling. All the time, for having an unlicensed bull in his tege on the way. The funeral on Monda connections, including the pivot pins of possession. mother and on the 11th June he saw the steering, were in bad condition and number of lorries on the road. There question was a 1936 Ford and had been forward. taxed up to the 24th March. The Society | Defendant was fined 2/6, and ordered to considered it very light for the purposes pay 2/- costs in addition to 10/- expenses. for which they required it and were William Quille, Glendryagh, Templeanxious to get a larger lorry. Owing to glantine, was fined a similar amount with the war, however, they were unable to similar expenses and costs for a like get one immediately. A short time after offence the offence they got rid of the lorry and Denis Sullivan, Kiltanna, Knockaderry, dition. At the time of the offence the bulls. done with a force such a short time in question. He denied assaulting Lyons manager of the Society was away wing A fine of 2/6 was imposed in each case, to a bereavement and the lorry was out and in addition defendant was ordered to little satisfaction out of him at all. There Worship to insert the simple condition Thompson, Castlegarde, for six months, was another case against the defendant that all practice dances on Sunday nights and was also employed by Dr. McPolin and will not extend beyond 11.30 p.m. Sergt. O'Connor, Tournafulla, told the not think that is an unreasonable condi-

SUBSTANTIAL SOCIETY.

The applicant said that the pictures in his cinema were being shown according Justice-I must say that the defendant to old time, with the result that the lights appears to be using this taxi in complete were off when the performances had condefiance of the law and the law of the cluded. The number of people who country must be enforced. I will fine attended the cinema was far greater than him a total fine of £7 on the summonses the number who went to the dance hall. before me or an alternative of two The Justice said he would grant the applicant permission to hold practice Defendant was also ordered to pay 11/- dances on Sunday nights until 12 o'clock in addition to permission for the usual all-HEAVY FINES. 'night dances on the dates required. How-Sergeant P. J. Connolly, P.S.V. In- ever, if evidence was given at a later date being brought Mr. O'Malley knew that spector, had the same defendant sum- that the fact that he gave permission for the defendant was unemployed and un-moned for (1) carrying passengers for practice dances on Sunday nights until 12 reward and not having a public service o'clock led to abuses he would reduce the per stone; butter 1.7 per 16.

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT CASE.

The Minister for Industry and Com-

Mr. J. J. Power, State Solicitor, prose-

Defendant said he was pleading guilty to drawing 2/-, as a result of false representations. He contended he was entitled to the remaining 6/-:

Michael Sweeney gave evidence to the effect that the defendant was in his hospital on Saturday, came as a sline employment on the dates in respect of to her berdayed husband and many which he drew the money.

signed the usual forms at the barracks in a few years. The little casket laid respect of the dates on which he alleged the bier, beside her own intensified he was not working.

Mr. B. O'Donoghue, Department spector, in reply to Mr. J. J. Power, State Soliciton prosecuting, gave evidence of Mr. Tynan said that the defendants finding an unlicensed bull on the defen-

Defendant said that when the time for put withess and his grandmother out of number of formes on the about any the inspection came along the bull was the cottage in which they lived and in of their lorries before. The lorry in too small and was not suitable for putting which defendant lived until the dooth of got a new one which was in perfect con- was summoned for having two unlicensed

THE ATLICALACIAM

were in slow demand and poor stores were unsold in many instances. Springerin forward condition met with a ready sale. Calves, 15 to 16; good condition heifers, 12 years, 113 to 116; second quality, £10 to £11 10s.; fat bullocks, 2 to 3 years, £20 to £22; good springers, £33 to £35; old cows for factory, £3 to £5 bulls, £16 to £20; bonhams, 25/- to 30 under 3 months; 3 months to 14 weeks 1.30/- to 38/-

and well attended by buyers | Care

DROMCOLLOGHER MARKETS

At the usual weekly markets after a supplies were on offer and all were deof at the following pairs Chickens, 1 - per b.; old fow a 6d at lb.; old ducks, 8d por the geese 75 each; eggs 1/9 per dozen; potatores

OBITUARY

MRS. DENIS J. FITZGERALD. ABBEYFEALE.

The death of Mrs. Catherine Fitzgers wife of Mr. Denis J Fitzgerald, Glenesrone, Abbeyfeale, which occur in the maternity ward of a Linia latives in Limerick and Kerry, Decen Guard Treacy said that the defendant was only 35, and had been married his feelings of sympathy so widely felt de Terence Nix, P.O. official, gave evidence those who composed a happy fam-Sunday evening the remains were Church, Abbeyfeale, and only on The ment took place in the family plot. We of equally large proportions. A hand number of Mass cards and floral trib. were sent by relatives and sympathis friends, and numerous expressions regret and condolences were tendend to the bereavel relatives.

> The prayers at the graveside were to by the Very Rev. T. Canon Hogan V.F.; Rey J. Houlihan, C.C.; Rev. W. Meade, C.C., Rev. P. Harnett, C.S.Sp.

Chief relatives Denis J. Fitzgon husband); Thomas (son); John Cron. Iremore; Very Rev. Dean P. Croude (brothers); Rev. | Sight -Grainfield Patricia. Mercy Convent, Bername (sisters); Mrs. T. Heniban, Bartin Teresa and Peggy Fitzgenold Charles law); James. Denis and John Com (uncles); Mrs. J. Moloney, Mrs. O'Kerthe Trieneragh (aunts): Tom and Mis. 1993

CHARLEVILLE CINEMA