lively and life-long devotion. His death though coming as a shock, was not wholly unexpected, as he was in failing health for over two years. He was attended in his last illness, which was born with a truly Christian fortitude, by Rev. Dr. Cune, C.C., D.Ph., and later by Rev. J. Hayes C.C. Fortified by the rites of the Holy Church, he yielded up his good soul to his Maker. "Pat," as he was familiarly known, belonged to one of the oldest and most highly respected families in Thradaree. His strict honesty and uprightness of character were known to all. His funeral cortege on both occasions was good testimony to the esteem in which he was held. Even nature seemed to pay him a last tribute, as the hedge-rows and fields along the journey to his resting place were a wealth of blossom, which he so much admired, and then the calm and sunshine which he dearly loved were just as he would have wished. Truly the peace of God. His remains were removed from Cahertigue to Newmarket Parish Church on Sunday evening. After Solemn Requiem Mass, celebrated by Rev. M. Hogan, C.C., assisted by Rev. J. Hayes, C.C., and Rev. M. Galvan, Chaplain, St. Michael's Convent, Carrigoran, on Monday, the funeral, which was large and representative of all classes, took place to the family burial ground, Quin Abbey. Prayers at the graveside were recited by Rev. M. Hogan, C.C.

The chief mourners were:—Michael (son); Mary B., Catherine, Mrs. Youhill, Nell'e, Anna Dymphna, and Margaret (daughters); Mary and Clare Hanrahan (neices); Kathleen and Mary Hanrahan (grand-neices); Harry Youhill (son-in-law); Jimmie Youhill (grand-child); Teddy and John Hanrahan (grand-nephews); Peter and Pat McInerney (brothers-in-law); J. Hanrahan, Michael, Denis, Peter and James McInerney (nephews), and numerous cousins and friends.

Mass Cards were sent by his loving son Michael, his loving daughter Mary B., Kitty and Harry Youhill and family, Nellie and Margaret in fond remembrance, Novena of Masses for five years from his loving daughter Anna Dymphna, our dear uncle Pat from Clare, Mary, Jim and family; M. K. Gunning, Limerick; Jane Corbett, Stonehall; Paddy and Bridget Meaney, Knockane; Tim and Mrs. McNamara, Clonloghar; floral tribute from Ann, Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on him.

MR. ED. P. FITZGERALD, DROM-TRASNA, ABBEYFEALE.

After a protracted illness the death of Mr. Edmond P. Fitzgerald, of Drom-trasna, Abbeyfeale, at the fine old age of 84, removes from his district one pre-eminently associated with the agricultural and general interests of the parish for many years past. A man of sound judgment and ability, with a clear discernment of rectitude in public matters of importance, he was esteemed and respected for the exercise of those qualities generously given whenever occasion called for them. leaves the bones, brains to be boiled in a piece of muslin. When sufficiently tender, skin the tongue, and cut it with meat into small pieces. Sauce: one ounce of margarine, three-quarters of an ounce of flour, one gill of milk. Melt the butter in a saucepan, stir in the flour smoothly, then add milk gradually, stirring all the time; add the brains slightly minced, with pepper and salt to taste. Arrange the meat on a dish, pour over sauce, and serve hot or cold.

How I Treat Indigestion

By Dr. F. B. Scott, Paris

Indigestion affects different patients in different ways. For one it means the violent griping pains of wind; for another, a sensation of 'burning,' while for many people it means an uncomfortable 'fulness' and drowsiness after meals.

But whatever the symptom, the cause is nearly always the same—excess acidity. What is wanted is a good 'anti-acid' preparation to neutralise this acidity. For this purpose my own prescription is 'Bisurated' Magnesia. I have found that 'Bisurated' Magnesia counteracts acidity immediately it reaches the stomach. And with the excess acid neutralised, normal, painfree digestion is rapidly restored. From experience in my own practice, I strongly recommend 'Bisurated' Magnesia for stomach disorders.

NOTE: 'Bisurated' Magnesia referred to above by Dr. Scott, is available at all chemists at prices from 6d. to 2/6.

ber of leading families in the West of the county the attendance, both at his funeral to Abbeyfeale and subsequent internment next day, was very large and representative. A number of Mass cards were contributed by relatives and friends.

The prayers at the graveside were read by the Rev. J. Houlihan, C.C., and Rev. Father O'Dea, C.C.

Chief relatives—Lena, Madge, Kittie Fitzgerald, S.R.N.; Mrs. C. J. Leahy (daughters), Patrick, John and William Fitzgerald (sons), Mrs. P. Fitzgerald (daughter-in-law), C. J. Leahy (son-in-law), Sean and Kathleen Leahy (grandchildren), Mrs. Julia Fitzgerald, Devon Road (sister-in-law), Paddy Fitzgerald (nephew), Lena, Nora, Bridget and Mary Fitzgerald, N.T.; Mrs. P. J. O'Donnell, Dublin (nieces), Julia, Agnes, Jerrie and Jackie O'Sullivan, Springmount; Joe Collins, Mrs. D. O'Leary, Mrs. J. Collins and P. Walsh (cousins).

It would be impossible to give the names of those who attended from Abbeyfeale, Tournafulla, Athea, Mountcollins, Templeglantine, Newcastle, Brosna, Knocknagoshel.
