MR. MICHAEL FITZGERALD, KILDRUMMIN, KILTEELY.

A deeply regretted event was the death of Mr. Michael Fitzgerald, Kildrummin, which took place with tragic unexpectedness on the evening of 22nd ult. In the prime of life, full of health and good spirits, the late Mr. Fitzgerald was about the business of his farm all during the day. The previous day he travelled to Thurles to witness the drawn match between Limerick and Cork and was apparently in the best of health.

On Monday evening he collapsed and expired within a short time. Spiritual assistance was rendered by Rev. Father Bannon, Kiltely. The shock was great to his widow, brothers and sister and numerous relatives and friends, with whom sincere sympathy is extended. He was held in deep respect and affection in the district. A great sportsman and coursing enthusiast, he took a very keen interest in the sporting events of the day.

The attendance at the obsequies was large and widely representative of all classes, who gathered to pay their last tribute to his memory, as he was laid to sleep beneath the trees in the old historic churchyard at Knockaney.—R.I.P.

Requiem Mass was celebrated in Kiltely Church by Rev. M. Fitzgerald, O.D.C. (cousin).

The clergy present were—Very Rev. J. Canon McCarthy, P.P., V.F., Hospital; Rev. Father Power, C.C., do.; Rev. J. Bannon C.C., Kiltely; Rev. C. Lee, D.D., C.C., Knockaney.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. M. Fitzgerald (widow), Messrs. James, Laurence and Denis Fitzgerald (brothers), Mrs. J. O'Dwyer, Ballinvreena (sister); Miss Mary Fitzgerald (niece), E. Hanley, Old Pallas (uncle); Mrs. N. Hanley (aunt), Messrs. John O'Dwyer, Ballinvreena; Michael and John O'Neill, Ballinacurra (brothers-in-law); Mrs. Murphy (sister-in-law).

It would be impossible to give a list of the public in attendance.

Mass cards were sent from Denis and Laurence; James and Mary Fitzgerald; Jack and Minnie O'Dwyer; Ed. and
