tract of houses built under a housing scheme at Kilmallock and recently opened by the Minister for Local Government.

Scheme is an Extension.

This new scheme, which is an extension of the present town sewerage, will start at Roche's Road and run across Chapel Lane and Peppard's Lane. Purification works and a pumping station will be erected near the right bank of the river Deel, about 300 yards below the town bridge.

Work for a Year.

The contract will take about a year to complete. Local labour, engaged through the Exchange, will be employed, and local materials will be used as far as possible.

Appointed on Executive.

Mr. Henry O'Brien, ex-N.T., hon. secretary of the Balingarry Guild of Muintir na Tire, has been appointed a member of the Central Executive of that organisation.

Sad Bereavement.

The death of Mrs. James Fitzgibbon, Liosnamuck, Croagh, which occurred at a Limerick Hospital on Thursday, 5th inst., is deeply regretted in the district where she lived. A loving wife and mother, she was a woman with many estimable traits of character and her demise at a comparatively early age is especially sad as she leaves a young family to mourn her loss. Deep, heartfelt sympathy is extended to her respected husband in his very sad bereavement.

The Funeral.

The remains were removed to Croagh Church on Friday evening and the funeral, which was of very large dimensions, was held to Croagh Cemetery on Saturday. The officiating clergy were —Rev. T. Murphy, P.P.; Rev. R. Dun-worth, P.P.; and Rev. Father Enright, C.C.

Another Death.

The death of Mr. David Jordan, which occurred at his home in Enniscuish, Rathkeale, early on Friday morning, 6th inst., removed a member of an old and respected Rathkeale stock. He was the father of Sister Mary David, St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, U.S.A. A very large funeral followed the remains when the interment took place in the New Cemetery, Rathkeale, on Saturday. Very Rev.
Canon Mangan, P.P., V.F.; Rev. P. C.
Lynch, C.C., and Rev. T. Costelloe, C.C., read the prayers at the graveside.

Link With Past Severed.

Mr. C. O'Donnell, Reens, who had reached an advanced age, passed to his reward early on Thursday morning. A large funeral followed the remains when removed from St. Mary's Church, Rathkeale, for interment at Clounagh Cemetery on Friday. The officiating clergy were:—Rev. P. C. Lynch, C.C., and Rev.
T. Costelloe, C.C.
