Death of Mrs. Forde.

Widespread and sincere regret has been occasioned by the news of the death of Mrs. Bridget Forde, The Square, Newcastle West, which occurred last week after a long illness. Widow of the late Mr. Ned Forde, who pre-deceased her by some sixteen months, deceased came from an old and highly-esteemed West Limerick family which has been engaged in the drapery business in the town for a long number of years. She leaves a large young family, to whom, as well as to the other bereaved relatives the deepest sympathy will be extended.

The Funeral.

The funeral to Churchtown Cemetery on Friday was one of the largest ever seen in the town and was representative of all sections. Rev. Father Forde, C.C., Diocesan Inspector, Cork, officiated at the graveside, and the other clergy present were:—Right Rev. Monsignor Hannon, P.P., V.G.; Rev. Father O'Grady, C.C.; Rev. Father Finton Roche, O.M.Cap. Chief mourners—Mrs. M. McCoy, Misses Maureen, Ita, Joan, Chris., Kathleen, Tessie (daughters) Thomas Ambrose (brother) Mrs. W. Reidy, Ballingarry (sister); Mrs. Keogh, Dublin (niece); Mrs. Harrold (sister-in-law), Mr. Pat Forde, Cork (brother-in-law); Mr. W. Reidy, Ballingarry (do.); Mr. D. McCoy (son-in-law), Mr. Jack Forde (nephew-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Hynes, Portumna; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Begley, Mr. and Mrs. Egan, Mrs. Kenrick, Mrs. Enright, Mrs. O'Neal (relatives).

Another Death.

The death occurred on Monday of Mrs. Margaret Naughton, Bishop Street, Newcastle West, after a prolonged illness. Aged only 29 years, deceased was daughter of Mrs. M. Ward, merchant, Tournafulla, and was married less than five years ago to Mr. Ned Naughton, only son of Mr. Patrick Naughton, Bishop Street. The late Mrs. Naughton was of a most charming and lovable disposition and her many ennobling qualities endeared her to all who enjoyed the pleasure of her acquaintance. The deepest sympathy will be extended to her sorrowing husband and the other members of the bereaved family. There was a large and representative attendance at the funeral from the local Parish Church to Templeglantine Cemetery on Tuesday. Right Rev. Monsignor Hannon, P.P., V.G., assisted by Rev. Father O'Grady, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

Link With The Past.

The death of Mr. Joe Singleton Knockane, Newcastle West, removes one of the oldest and most esteemed members of the once prosperous shoe-making industry in the town. Aged about 78 years, deceased was engaged in the trade for over half a century up to a comparatively short time before his demise. All classes were represented at the funeral, which took place from the local Parish Church to Churchtown on Sunday.
