this country. The entry of the former country into the war and the military collapse of the latter had completely changed the situation. Shut out from the two countries named, John Bull has now turned to us for a market, with the result that for the past three weeks coal has been pouring into Eire in ever increasing quantities

KILMEEDY-FEENAGH NOTES

(From Our Correspondent).

Preserves.
 The Committees of the Carhmore, Gortnacreehy and Belville Preserves held a special meeting on Sunday evening, July 14th, for the purpose of securing funds for the better preservation of game. Mr. Terence Liston (presiding) said the funds of the Association were now almost at zero point, and without financial assistance the destroying hand of the poacher would eventually supervene.

Gorse Fire.
 The Hon. Secretary said since their last meeting a gorse fire adjacent to the Gortnacreehy preserves had depleted some of their stock. This wanton destruction had been condemned in the Press and rightly so.

Horse Fair.
 Due, no doubt, to war conditions, the prices obtained at Cahirmee fair last week were on the low side. Local sales included a very handsome 4-year-old hunter by "Huntsman," the property of Mr. John Liston, Gortnacreehy, Kilmeedy, to a home buyer. Were it not for prevailing conditions the price of this animal should run into the three figures. Messrs.
 Chawke Bros., Drominacrine, disposed of two troopers.

Recent Deaths.
 The death took place during last week of Mrs. Alice Hayes, Ballyhahill, Kil-meedy, in her 78th year, and also of Mr.
 William Hanly, Carhmore, in his 90th year. The interments took place at Clouncagh. The local clergy officiated.
 Very Rev. Canon O'Gorman, P.P., Kil-meedy, and Rev. Father Leahy, P.P., Bulgaden, were also in attendance at the latter funeral.

Irish Red Cross.
 A branch of the Irish Red Cross has been formed locally, and it is hoped that this progressive and important society will attract the support of the p ane.

Hurling Victory.
 On Sunday last the team travelled to Kilmallock to play Ballygaddy in the semi-final of the Junior Championship. The game was packed with
