RATHKEALE NOTES

(From Our Correspondent).

Obituary.

It is with very deep and sincere regret that we report the death of Mrs. Joseph Healy, The Square, Rathkeale, which occurred on Wednesday, the 11th inst. Although deceased had been in failing health for some months it was not generally known that her illness had taken a serious turn, so that the sad news came as a shock to the public in Rathkeale, who realised that her demise deprived a family, all in tender years, of a wise and loving mother.

Many Fine Traits.

Upright and straightforward in her dealings with everybody, the late Mrs. Healy was truly charitable in word and deed, and had many virtues that gained for her the respect and admiration of those who knew her. To her husband, who is a prominent and popular Rathkeale business man, and the relatives of the deceased general sympathy is extended in their sorrow.

Very Large Funeral.

The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church, Rathkeale, on Thursday evening and the interment took place in the New Cemetery, Rathkeale, on Friday. The funeral on each occasion was of extremely large dimensions. The officiating clergy were:—Very Rev. Canon Mangan, P.P., V.F.; Rev. P. C. Lynch, C.C., and Rev. T. Costelloe, C.C.

General Sympathy Extended.

The people of Rathkeale town and district learned with regret of the bereavement caused to Sergeant Keegan through the death of his mother. Ever since he came to Rathkeale Sergeant Keegan has proved himself a courteous and very efficient peace officer. He is held in very high esteem with all classes, who sympathise with himself and his relatives in their sorrow.

Blessings of Peace.

During the past week shop windows in Rathkeale have been decorated with an artistry and lavish of attractive goods that makes one stop and ponder, and perhaps exclaim—"What a blessing to be living in th's little oasis of peace in the midst of a deseft of war."

Splendid Selection.
