

TICAL HINTS

The Home

MARY HARDING

It is to tell whether the aver-
liking for sugar is instinc-
very few children emerge nursery stage without leaving artificially stimulated in How far the liking should s another point upon which er.
e now hold the stern rule s allowed," but all doctors, dentists agree that they
e given to children just bee, or after the teeth have bad for the teeth if sweets without cleansing of the
oon afterwards as possible, s to reason that they should ved indiscriminately between he appetite will be spoilt; if eets are eaten just prior to child will not be properly d he will probably refuse
which are of more value. s so bad for the teeth, and quently to early decay, as g of sweets without the nsing of the mouth after-ould also be careful not to eets as a form of bribe or good behaviour, taking the oper discipline, for the child ved to "tease" for sweets, to as a matter of course, and nduigent and greedy in this ling a poor character.
m, then, should the sweets ake? Naturally, they must be good quality, and in winter extra sugar and fats are re-warmth creamy toffees, choc-
are valuable to health.
iled sugared varieties are d, and barley sugar and ining glucose are often refor children who lack ene subject to billiousness.

WASHING UP.

the washing up in the same

GLIN ITEMS

(From Our Correspondent).

Whist Drive.

On Sunday evening next a grand whist drive will be held in St. Joseph's Hall under the auspices of the Christian Brothers. Valuable prizes will be given and during an interval tea will be served. The Orphanage Band will dis- course a choice selection of music.

The Red Cross.

A general meeting of the Red Cross Branch was held during the week, Rev. Father O'Grady, C.C., Chairman, pre- siding. The Knight of Glin and Madame Fitzgerald were amongst those present. Miss Moore, hon. secretary, was instruc- ted to purchase first aid outfits for the use of the classes conducted by Mrs Pollock, who has kindly placed her ser- vices at the disposal of the Branch. Dr. John Barrett, M.O., an indefatigable worker, consented to give additional lectures and first aid in preparation for the examination, which is to be held shortly.

Vote of Sympathy.

On the proposition of the Rev. Chair- man, a vote of sympathy was tendered to Mr. David O'Leary, an esteemed mem- ber of the Branch, on the death of his sister, Mrs. Hogan, ex-N.T., Banagher.

Emergency Council.

Very Rev. Canon O'Carroll, P.P., pre- sided at a meeting of the Emergency, or Parish, Council. Correspondence was read from Mr. J. J. Berkery, County Commissioner, on the question of food stocks in the shops. The Commissioner urged that garden allotments should be put under cultivation. It was decided to inform the Commissioner that the traders were holding good stocks; that wheat cultivation was good, and that garden allotments were being tilled.

Needed Works.

The Council expressed satisfaction at the news that the town footpaths would be concreted in the near future. The hope was expressed that the pier would be made safe for heavy traffic, it being pointed out that this facility was indis- pensable to Glin and district.

Tarbert Court.

At the Tarbert District Court, before Mr. C. S. Kenny, B.L., D.J., Thomas Man- gan, Cahara, Glin, was fined 20/- for driving a motor van in a negligent man-

BRUREE

(From Our Corre

Coursing.

The opening half of Rock Hill Coursing Cl son was held at Rock Sunday, 13th inst. The c coursing and with a pl hares sport was good. 1 over were Knockann and Lotteragh. On Sun the meet was at Bruree ted were Ballynaught, were in abundance.

Which Is It?

Dividing the two day one hare was pulled either one or other of the hares are extra fl are slow. Time will tell. This plentiness of hares a successful season.

Obituary.

The death occurred on Thursday, 17th ins- ence, Derawlin, Bruree Fenton. The deceased gentle disposition and in our midst she endea by her exemplary man her passing away at a evoked deep regret. T removed to Rock Hill day evening.

The Funeral.

The funeral, which v presentative, took place the family burial gro Rev. Father O'Donnell, sisted by Rev. Father and Rev. Father Crow the graveside. To her relatives we tender our Another Death.

The death took place gan, Ballynaught, on instant. The deceased advanced age and enj right up to the last. T was a perfect gentlem upright, straightforward to lend a helping hand The Obsequies.

The remains were re Church on Friday eve by a large gathering o funeral took place on family burial ground