A small donation at earn the gratitude of the poor, some of whom are in dire distress.

Benefactors.

There are charitable people who have at all times helped the needy according to their means. In Killaloe there is at least one benefactress whose purse-strings are at all times open to the distressed. Her charity is unbounded and her name a household word in the homes of the poor.

Mr. Johnson, Provincial Bank.

On learning of the transfer, on promotion, of the above amiable bank manager to Tipperary town general regret was manifested throughout the district at the prospect of his speedy departure. Since his advent to town a few years ago there was none more active in the interests of the town and people. He was a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society and a live worker on many other committees for the benefit of the town. His departure will be a great loss, as there were few better disposed or more energetic in the discharge of his duties. To Mr. and Mrs. Johnson the best wishes are extended for their future happiness and welfare.

Red Cross (Ogonnelloe).

The members of the above are availing of the opportunities afforded of becoming acquainted with all rudiments of First Aid. They are punctual at the weekly instructions and will be a great asset to the community in war or peace times.

Local Market.

There was a good supply of potatoes at the local market on Tuesday last. They were readily disposed of at 6d. per stone.

Deeply Regretted.

The death of Mr. Holland, auctioneer, Whitegate, is deeply regretted in the Killaloe parish, where the deceased had many friends and associates. He was a lovable personality and a staunch Nationalist.

Killaloe L.S.F.

At a meeting of the Group Section Leaders of the Killaloe L.S.F., a resolution was proposed and unanimously adopted thanking all the owners of motor transport, who kindly lent their cars for the purpose of conveying the members of the L.S.F. to Ennis to attend review parade on November 24th; also all who had assisted in a like manner on former occasions.

Approach of Christmas.

The approach of the Holy Festival is apparent. The little mites going to school have no further powers of concentration.
