a Our Correspondent).

all his colleagues who took ignored. competition.

ipetition.

ariety Co. conducted a coming last week at the Hall. In a Sunday night Miss Nellie d Mr. Pat Meehan, Kilcoleg secured the same number ivided the prize.

t of Teacher.

O'Connell, Ardpatrick, has ted assistant teacher at the school. Miss O'Connell, who aplished singer and organist, he choir on Sunday evening tions.

Collection.

al collection at Knockaderry agh on behalf of the Fianna was held on Sunday and the party were very well. h the proceeds, which exyear's mark.

Dance,

e held under the auspices of ecurity Force at the Old Mill night was a success beyond tions of the promoters. The n charge left nothing undone ry satisfaction to the throng and the hall itself, as far as tion is concerned, lends itsaf yment.

iffet.

ision of a running buffet, and light refreshment can be a reasonable fariff, may be copied by dance committees It is difficult to understand s can live it out to the small e morning without a cup of lly those who have long jourvel home.

ion Taylor, of the Gordies who had been playing to at Knockaderry during the

* ; *

The County Executive wish to make it known that only members of the Society can attend first aid classes, do the first aid examinations and that each member kaderry L.S.F. were on the of a course must have attended 75 per nday firing their courses. A cent, of the lectures before the examinetition and prize awards ation can be taken. The requirement ractice very interesting, and that all members must pay 5/- for the kably good shots were regis- privilege of membership, is a rule of the . J. Mulqueen got top marks Society, which until it is amended by the long with the hearty congra- Central Council of the Society cannot be

The L.S.F. and Lectures.

During the present emergency members of the L.S.F. rean attend the first aid classes and obtain first aid certificates without payment, pending the recommendation to the Central Council that the rules be amended so as to permit them to attend.

GLIN ITEMS

(From Our Correspondent).

Regretted Death.

The death of Mr. Maurice Holly building contractor, Tarbert, is deeply regretted. Two of his sons are priests, and two daughters are also in religion. The widow is a sister of Con Colbert, who was executed by the British after the 1916 The funeral, after Requiem Rising. High Mass, was of immense proportions. The delebrant of the Mass was, Rev. Fr. McCarthy, C.S.Sp.; deacon, Rev. Fr. Halpin, C.S.Sp.; sub-deacon, Rev. P. Holly, C.S.Sp. (son); master of ceremonies, Rev. Con Holly, C.S.Sp. (son). There were twenty priests in the choir. Deep Sympathy.

The news of the death of Mrs. Nora O'Leary-Hogan, ex-N.T., which took place at Banagher, has occasioned deep regret in Glin, her native place. She was sister of Mr. David O'Leary, ex-N.T., Glin, and Mrs. M. Costello, ex-N.T., to whom sincere sympathy is extended in their bereavement.

The Fete.

. The fete in the grounds of the Castle, kindly lent by the Knight of Glin and Madame Fitzgerald, was a great success. It was in aid of the Local Security Force, and patrons enjoyed the different entertainments provided, especially the concert. Rev. Father McCarthy, C.C., at the conclusion of the concert, paid a high tribute to the different artists thanked most cordially the Knight and Madame Fitzgerald for their graciousness in plackindly travelled with howing the castle and grounds at the disposal e Old Mill for the occasion of the L.S.F. During the afternoon, it is services gratis, as he has should be mentioned, the band of St. down miles and in the Joseph's Industrial School played a de-public service. The leas to in their unselfish. efforts is practical assis of liberal contribution funds necessary for ear work.

The Red Cross Soc international organisati ing as well as great w born in the brain of Swiss, Jean Henri Du the idea in a book he w book describes the hor the wounded at Solfer where the French and had inflicted a decisi-Austrians in 1859. The some form of internat body be set up to sufferings anywhere a A short times of war. delegates from sixteen Geneva to consider th two years later in 1864-Red Cross Organisati To-day that wonderfu

The present member Cross Society is estim

and respected all over

principles are receiving

and recognition.

like twenty millions. influence of a comi organisation has now Ircland in a spirit of Branches have been fo country and most of really excellent work. Limerick City appears best and most energet on this position its office who have contributed state of things about congratulated. The se in the county, too, ar proofs of their viri readiness of their men sacrifices required of all, indeed, showing a

which deserves

full