Late Mr. Guerin de Barri.

One of the largest funerals seen in the district for a long time was that of Mr. Guerin de Barri, Gortacloona, whose death took place in St. John's Hospital, Limerick. He was a brother of Miss Mary Barry, of Mr. Hubert Barry, Gortacloona, and of Mr. Robert Barry, Bruff. In the Sinn Fein days he identified himself prominently with the national cause, being a member of the Coiste Ceanntair of the organisation. An extensive farmer, he was held in the highest respect and regard in the district, his polished manners, unblemished character, and attractive personality winning him many friends. His death at a comparatively early age caused a great shock to his many friends and occasioned deep and genuine regret throughout a wide area. R.I.P.

Late Mrs. O'Donnell, Newtown.

The death took place last week at her residence, Newtown, Elton, of Mrs. Mary O'Donnell, at a fairly advanced age. A woman of many admirable qualities, she was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. There was a large attendance at her interment, which took place in Hospital Cemetery. The last prayers at the graveside were recited by Very Rev. Canon Humphreys, P.P., Knockainey, assisted by Rev. Dr. Lee, C.C., do.

Mr. E. J. Mitchell's Bull Sale.

There was a very large catalogue gone through before a huge attendance at Mr. E. J. Mitchell's annual bull sale held on Friday last. All animals on view were sold, the prices in general being higher than for several years back. The first prize went to Mr. James Moloney, Drumcomogue, who disposed of his animal for £26 15s. Madame O'Grady's exhibit was awarded second prize and in the ring fetched £27 10s. The third prize went to Mr. Hanly, of Scragh, Kiltteely.

Mr. Madden's Sale.

The annual sale of Mr. P. H. Madden and Son on Tuesday last also attracted a big gathering of the farming community from a wide area; and there was brisk bidding for the most of the animals. Mr. Patrick Quish, Ballycahill, received first prize and sold for £27 10s. Second prize went to Mr. McGrath, of Pallas, whose exhibit realized £26 10s.

Mission in Ballybricken.

Impressive scenes of devotion and reverence were witnessed in Ballybricken Church last week during the Mission conducted by Rev. Father Adrian, Franciscan Priory, Limerick. Large crowds from the parish augmented by representatives of the surrounding parishes thronged the church every evening at seven o'clock for the devotions and sermon. Beautifully fine weather in the first instance combined with the attraction of engrossingly eloquent sermons drew crowded congregations throughout the week. The closing ceremonies on last Sunday night were particularly impressive, when, after an exceptionally brilliant lecture, the whole congregation with lighted candles raised aloft made a solemn renewal of Baptismal Vows. In his valedictory address, the rev. preacher paid a striking tribute to the priests of the parish, Rev. Father Sampson, P.P., and Rev. Father Lynch, C.C., for their zeal and interest in the welfare of the parish and for the great and numerous kindnesses he had experienced at their hands during his stay with them. He also spoke in eulogistic terms of the parishioners for the manner in which they had attended at the various exercises, and for the great manifestation of faith and loyalty to the Church they Priest Bereaved.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. James Kelly, Bosnetstown, Kilfinane, mother of Rev. James Kelly, C.C., Ballinagarry, which sad event occurred at her residence on last Saturday night. A kindly and charitable lady, she was held in high esteem by all who knew her, and her death was learned of with general regret. A devout Catholic, she passed peacefully away, comforted by the rites of Holy Church.

The Obsequies.

The remains were removed to St. Andrew's Church, accompanied by an immense cortege, on Sunday evening. Requiem Office and High Mass were offered up on Monday for the repose of her soul. Very Rev. Pig Market.

The market held on Friday, 17th inst., was small. Borhams were fairly plentiful and prices ranged from 30s. to 55s.
