

and Nicholas Street),
at her residence, 7
e, Farranshane, Limesteemed and widely re-
demise will be learned
by a large circle of quaintances. To her
l, Mr. Daniel O'Leary,
and relatives we extend
sympathy.

l take place from St.
l, to Mt. St. Laurence ow (Wednesday) at 3

May, the Limerick
Society will stage two
holic Institute—"Oidh-
tion of T. C. Murray's
"An Sar-Ghadaidhe,"
of "The Burglar and Boulton.

said she got out of Mrs. Purtill on the
was lying on the unl of the road on the g to Foynes. She was e to witness. Witness g like a heap on the towards Foynes, and
be the dead body of
she knew.

ening, at 7.30 o'clock, tested the accused as Foynes, at the request

She formed the
used had drink taken
ble of driving a car.
aving been given, the
vidence was ad-

Opposing the resolution, Mr. Sean Murray said he thought it premature.
They should not anticipate that there would be no satisfactory results from the Wages Board.

Mr. H. Collins, organiser, said that if the companies had not sufficient funds to meet the men's claims for higher wages, the Government should step in and assist them as they had assisted the air transport.

Mr. C. D. Watters, Chief Organiser in Ireland, made a report to the meeting on the negotiations which had already taken place with the companies on the question of wage increases.

A further resolution was passed unanimously: "That this meeting, having heard rumours from various sources, including the Press, that it is the Government's intention to introduce legislation interfering with the liberty of the workers and their right to strike, hereby warn the Government, that should any attempt on their part be made to do so, we shall use any and every means in our power to prevent such legislation being given effect to."

LATE MR. PATRICK KENNY.

The funeral took place to Glasnevin of Mr. Patrick Kenny, building contractor, Richmond Road, Fairview, and Mer-rion, Dublin, and late of Limerick. He was brother of Mr. John Kenny, of the firm of Messrs. John Kenny and Sons, Harcourt Road, Dublin, and Cecil St., Limerick.

The funeral was private, and included among the chief mourners, Mrs. Kenny (widow), members of the family, and relatives.

passage. On qu
there must be gi
yield and conce
thing to rememb
is preferable to e

WELL OFFICERS

All concerned a
on the happy ter
gotiations—the rep
sides, no less than
fied the findings
officered like the Workers cannot calculated to end
its members. Thei
dence and comm
these assets operat
recourse to metho
frequently been en
Section of the U.D
scored generous co

ST. JOHN'S HOSPITAL

St. John's Hospit
this column a shor
recognised by th
Council as a cent
training of nurses. yearly meeting of
ment was officiall
will be received in
ure. Our two vol
share in this duty,
ment to efficiency

A sixteen-year old
the youngest painte
the Royal Academy
pictures and both