Military.
The large force of military which had been under canvas in the district for the past few months have now moved to take up indoor residence.

Lecture.
Lieutenant O'Neill gave a very interesting lecture to members of the L.S.F. during the past week. Road blocks in the event of an invasion was the subject dwelt on and the lecture was keenly followed by all present.

Rifle Practice.
During the past week all members of the L.S.F. were given an opportunity of trying their shot. Each member was allowed five shots and there was, indeed, very keen competition amongst the members.
