OBITUARY

MISS KATHLEEN McCARTHY, CAPPAMORE.

We regret very much to have to announce the death of Miss Kathleen McCarthy, which took place at St. John's Hospital, Limerick, on Monday, 13th May. Aged 13 years, she was the daughter of Mr. John and Mrs. McCarthy, Chapel House, Main Street, Cappamore. The funeral was of very large dimensions and included all the children from the Con- vent of Mercy School, who walked in pro- cession after the remains to the family burial place at Towerhill.

The chief mourners were:—John and Mrs. McCarthy (parents), Eily, Mary, Margaret, Teresa, Celena and Phyllis (sisters), Patrick, Michael and Joseph (brothers), Mrs. J. J. McCarthy, Limerick (aunt); James, Joseph and Willie McCarthy (uncles), Mr. John McCarthy (senior), Mr. J. J. McCarthy (junior), R. McCarthy, Limerick (cousins).

Sincere sympathy is extended to her sorrowing parents and family.

CHARLEVILLE CINEMA

"Jesse James," 20th Century-Fox spec- tacular drama of the most famous out- law and the turbulent events that gave him to the world, is the attraction on Sunday, 26th May, for three days. In this epic story of a lawless era we are given a true and stirring picture of the most colourful outlaw that ever lived. In "Jesse James" the almost legendary figure is portrayed by Tyrone Power exactly as he was—neither all good nor all bad, a brave and tender husband to the girl he married, a victim of injus- tice to the simple folk who knew him and, to the people who hated him, an outlaw and a killer. Rarely has Holly- wood offered a more complete study of the life of a man than it has in "Jesse James." Those who see the film will realise that here, in thunderous sweep, is the all-inclusive story of the most ex- citing bandit that ever roamed the hills of America. Never for a moment are audiences allowed to forget that they are witnessing a truly great picture. From the first successful moment of the film's beginning up to the smashing climax, "Jesse James" moves from one thrilling sequence to another with a breathless tempo that is seldom achieved on the screen. Henry Fonda, Nancy Kelly and Randolph Scott support the stars, with brilliant individual performances.
