

to make a drag with the nade a drag and subserose to the surface. They body and removed it to body was clothed in blue an oilskin coat and there on the feet.

azill said that was all the proposed to offer to-day. r said he would adjourn until the return of the was then adjourned pro-4 p.m. on Friday next.

Y WITH RELATIVES.

was tendered to the lives by the Coroner (Dr.
r. Treacy, on behalf of the mship Company; by Inon behalf of the Guards, reman of the jury.

GE PENSIONS

E FOR INCREASED LLOWANCES

or of "Limerick Leader.;"

read with much interest end issue the letters of Mr.
r. Watters concerning my e the old age pensioners in es given an extra amount ake the 10/- they receive value to what it was prior Let me say at once that I oach this subject from a point, and I have no interest ty which will get the extra e old age pensioners; all I l about is that they get p body and soul together.

Mr. Watters statement in ers to large land owners /- old age pension by hand-farms to their sons, when eir 70th year, of course, I ware as he is of what is his direction, and like him, with it; but that is no reason ine case should suffer. In f the Act there are many which any fair-minded pert agree, and which are a p on many. Who is going instance, that a man who is working life for a small allowance from his Trade be deprived of the old age he receives 15/- from this only 1/- per week from the r. Watters, there are many e Act necessary, and per-course of time they will be but again does anyone

Mr. C. S. Kenny, B.L., D.J., All the excise licences for Tarbert, Newtownsandes and Ballylongford were renewed, there being no objection on the part of the authorities.

Patrick O'Callaghan, labourer, Saleen, Tarbert, was summoned for attempting to draw 4/- unemployment benefit illegally.

The defendant admitted the offence, but pleaded ignorance.

The Justice applied the Probation Act.

J. Shanahan, Kilbaha, was fined 5/-, with 11/- costs and expenses, for having an unlicensed bull in his possession.

For a similar offence, James Woulfe, Gortnagoona, was fined 10/-, with 11/- costs and expenses.

Michael Fitzgerald, Lenamore, when summoned for being in possession of an unlicensed bull, explained that he did not go in for breeding.

A fine of 10/- was imposed.

A dance licence for the new hall at Newtownsandes was granted to Mr.
Enright on behalf of the Local Security Force.

DEATH OF MRS. A. McCARTHY

With very sincere regret we chronicle the demise of Mrs. Anne McCarthy, 10 O'Connell Terrace, O'Connell Avenue, Limerick, which took place this morning in the Mater Hospital, Dublin.

The deceased was relict of Mr. Richard McCarthy, wool and hide merchant, and mother of Rev. C. McCarthy, C.S.S.R., St.
Joseph's, Dundalk.

A lady of many charming parts, she was held in great esteem and regard, and her death will be learned of with genuine regret and sorrow. Kind and charitable to a degree, the late Mrs.
McCarthy helped every good cause, but her benefactions for the poor, given quietly and without ostentation, amounted to a considerable sum annually. An exemplary mother and a sterling citizen, her death is a severe blow to her family, to whom heartfelt sympathy will be extended in their great bereavement.

The remains will arrive at the Borough Boundary, Pennywell, at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening, and the funeral will take place on Friday morning to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, at the conclusion of Requiem Mass in St. Michael's Church at 10.30 o'clock.

ABBEYFEALE CONFRATERNITY

At a meeting of the Immaculate Conception Confraternity on Sunday last (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent), Rev. Father W. J. Meade, C.C., announced that a series of important lectures would be given at future meetings. In face of the appalling havoc caused by war, aristo-night to decide on a which will probably in-vision of a rest-room.

Amongst the several hu-who arrived at Dun-night was a number of I Three of those who cro-and arrived in Limerick Miss K. Burns, her si-Burns, and Mr. T. Fitzge-proceeding to Abbeyfeale.

Their experiences were terrifying incidents which an every day occurrence people in London.

Miss K. Burns, who v-central London, told Leader" representative t-were dropped outside her blown downstairs from storey by the force of th-escaped injury.

Her sister said that sh-girl killed in the stree-

The party appeared to turbid by their bombing

G.S.R. 'BUS S

TICKETS "MADE IN

(To The Editor, "Lime

Dear Sir—I am enclosing recently issued by the Railways Omnibus Servicof this ticket, in small the source of origin, v-England." It appears t-made tickets issued by vices are produced from t-I am not acquainted v-paper or printing trades be of general interest t-tickets could be produced If so, what amount of lost by not having the home? In view of the ir-which we hear so much present time, it is very s-of our principal public co-evade its responsibilities tickets produced outside

Thanking you in antici-tion,

DAMAGES FOR BAI

An armed raid on the fast, branch of the Munst-Bank on June 28, had Belfast Recorder's Court
J. Murray, the cashier, M-Andersonstown, was awa-ages for malicious injur-