

Scariff (cousin);
ch, C.C., Sixmile-
v. M. Hogan, C.C.,
master of cere-
Barry, P.P., Six-
very C. O'Sullivan,
v. J. Hayes, C.C.,

at by—Her loving
her sister Nora;
lins; Mother and
amily; Mrs. Collins
d Joe O'Halloran;
Elsie and family;
une family, Doora;
ce; Tim and Mrs.
Nurse O'Connell;
mie and Bridget;
ownes; her loving
ld, Ballycar House;
family; Carmody
onnell; Mrs. Mor-ichael and Mrs.
n family; Hogan
Mrs. Daly; H.
ourke family, New-
y; Willie and Nora
family; Jack Cur-
n, N.T.; Bridget
ichael and Mrs.
nd Anne Twomey;
er Doyle; Mr. and
D. Murnane, Crat-
n Joe and Annie
an; Michael Howd family; Michael alahine; Mr. and
ld; Annie Callinan,
n, Mrs. Gerald Mc-
artigan, Carnakella,
inis.

took place subse-
nted by all classes,
largest seen in the
ears.

were—David Casey
trick and Michael Nora Moroney and
); Patrick Moroney
an and Mrs. Mc-
ichael, James, Joe
y, James Collins
s. Joe Casey, Mrs.
sey (sisters-in-law);
C.C., Scariff; Sister
Michael and Kath-
e O'Halloran, John,
eMahon, John and
James, John and
Mrs. J. Hickey,
nd Jack Hartigan,
ghan (cousins).
ey, C.C., recited the
graveside, and was

or war.

Thanking you in anticipation of giving this letter publication—Yours faithfully,

CHRIS. O'CONNELL.

Woodville, Brandon Road,

Binley, Coventry.

19th November, 1940.

(Well known in Limerick, ex-Munster Cycling Champion, late Thomondgate.)

.. She couldn't help laughing

His false teeth kept slipping and he got so embarrassed.

Thousands of people with false teeth know what it is to have their plates slip at an awkward moment—just when they are being most earnest and impressive.

You needn't suffer this embarrassment.
Sprinkle a little Dr. Wernet's Powder on your plate in the morning and you can forget you have one. It stays firm and comfortable all day long. Prevents sore gums, too. 60,000 Dentists the world over recommend Dr. Wernet's. Get a small tin to-day from any chemist.

assisted by the Rev. Father Barry, P.P., Sixmilebridge; Rev. Father O'Sullivan,
P.P., Cratloe, and Rev. Father Lynch, C.C., Sixmilebridge.

MRS. E. McCARTHY, MOYNSHA.

Much regretted by her numerous friends on both sides of the Feale (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent), the death of Mrs. Lizzie Collins McCarthy, of Moynsha, Abbeyfeale, took place after a very short illness. Belonging to an old West-Limerick family of widespread connections, also in Kerry, her death at the age of 53 is very much regretted.
Deceased was sister of Mr. Con Collins, of Earl Street, Dublin, and Mr. Edmond Collins, M.P.S.I., Killorglin. A very large funeral procession accompanied the remains to St. Mary's Parish Church, Abbeyfeale. The attendance at the interment, where the prayers at the graveside were read by the Rev. Father Griffin, Duagh, and Rev. J. Houlihan, C.C., was also very large. Many expressions of sympathy were conveyed to her daughters, Mrs. Mary J. O'Keeffe and Miss Maisie McCarthy, and to Mr. J. O'Keeffe, son-in-law.