

CONTINUE WEEKLY MEETINGS. Having a brief discussion, it was decisively decided that the Society continue to hold its weekly meetings heretofore, until other arrangements became necessary.

President said a great deal of the work of the Literary and Economics Society was due to the "Limerick and Limerick Chronicle." The references to the Society helped it before the public and to attract new members. For that reason he owed a deep debt of gratitude to the journals who were good enough to print the promotion of the work and the editors for their valuable support. The Society was inaugurated.

CONGRATULATIONS ON DIAMOND JUBILEE.

At the meeting concluded it was decided on the proposition of Mr. W. J. to convey a hearty vote of congratulation to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Eakins, this year celebrated the Diamond Jubilee of their wedding. Mr. Donnellan said Mr. Eakins was one of the most valued members of the Society and everybody wished both him and Mrs. Eakins many more years of happiness.

At the opening meeting on Wednesday night next, it was decided to invite members of the L.S.F. to an inter-

BEAUTY AND TALENT

LIMERICK COMPETITIONS

Limerick competitors and a third Dundalk were selected to participate in the final of the Dawn beauty competition at the Savoy Cinema this morning. There were eleven entrants for the beauty area, and the three finalists were selected by Mr. J. Lyons and Miss B. representing the adjudicating committee. The selected were:—Miss B. Ryan, Carrigrohane, Lisnagry; Miss Selina F. Hill, 47, Bengal Terrace, Limerick; Miss Julia Holmshaw, 43, McSwiney Street, Dundalk. These ladies will now compete in the final of the contest at the Metropole Ballroom, Dublin, on November 28th.

Following the selection of the beauty finalists, an audition was held in connection with the Dawn talent contest. There were only seven entrants, all being young ladies. Singing, dancing, imitations and variety were amongst the types of talent presented, but the standard generally was not exceptional. One or two of the girls showed definite promise, and in particular one young Limerick girl who was the only finalist when the competition is over next month.

struck him a savage blow. Considerable violence had to be used to restrain Regan.

Justice—Was the man drunk?

Sergeant—There was no drink in question, but he appeared to be a maniac at the time.

The defendant said he was sorry for what had happened.

Justice—Blackguardly conduct of this kind cannot be tolerated. The Sergeant went to quell a family row and in the process was savagely assaulted. You will go to jail for two months.

CHARGE OF BURNING HAY.

Supt. Heron, Newport, applied for a remand to the Newport Court of Thomas Carr, Fiddane, Newport, now in custody on the charge of burning hay, belonging to two parties, to the value of £150.

Mr. T. E. O'Donnell, solicitor, who appeared for the accused, applied for bail.

The Justice remanded accused to the next Newport Court and fixed bail, himself in £100 and two sureties of £50 each.

For a technical breach of the licensing laws D. O'Driscoll was fined £1.

Mr. D. G. O'Donovan, solicitor, defended.

DEAD IN FIELD

DISCOVERY NEAR KILLALOE

After a search in the early hours of yesterday morning, the body of Mr. James Moloney, blacksmith and farrier, Ogonnelloe, was found lying in a field near Killaloe. Deceased worked as usual on Wednesday and went out in the evening. When he did not return at the usual time the search was instituted. He was a brother of Mr. Michael Moloney, licensed trader, Roche's Street, Limerick.

RITA DANCE

A grand dance has been arranged for St. John's Pavilion on Saturday night, 16th November, as advertised in this issue. The proceeds will be in aid of St. Augustine's New Church Building Fund. Dancing from 10 to 3 a.m. An added attraction will be the presence of the Old Belvedere and Garryowen Rugby football teams, the Leinster and Munster Cup holders. The prices of admission are—Gents, 2/6; ladies, 2/-; double, 4/-. The Rita dances have been accorded very generous patronage by the Limerick dancing fraternity, for which the promoters are very grateful, and Saturday night's dance will, it is hoped, be a great success also. Patrons will, by their attendance, incidentally help the Augustinian Fathers in the great work of building the new church.

Keyes have announced. Minister urging men's demand for penny per hour.

RED CROSS

SPECIAL CITY

As will be seen on our front page, the auspices of the Red Cross will be held in the city on the day night next, 20th, to further the interests of the city locally and to form a desirable object, the attendance at the large and representative meeting. Mr. Bourke, T.D., made the advertisement of the organisation of services in the city and requires the establishment of an act.

HARBOUR

UNOPPOSED

COMMISSION

Mr. D. McNiece, Harbour Board, in proposing to-day proposed re-election of the Harbour Commissioners. Goodwin, Messrs. Loughrey, J. M. Limerick County Carew, as representatives and Exporters.

The following are the Harbour Ratepayers without opposition body, E. Holliday, Morgan McMahon.

SHANNON AIRPORT STAFF

As advertised Shannon Airport their first annual Hotel Ballroom, The Committee—R. Woods, Hon. Sec. Hon. Treasurer; Tierney, C. B. Kennedy and R. comprehensive a spacious ballroom. Miss Sheila Dunn are assured a mc