MR. PATRICK MORRISSEY SENIOR, THOMONDGATE.

The death of Mr. Patrick Morrissey senior which took place at the City Hospital on Tuesday, 4th June, marked the passing of a man respected and admired by all who knew him. The late Mr. Morrissey had been in poor health for some time and his death was not entirely unexpected.

The funeral, which took place on Wednesday to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, was a large and representative one and a fitting last tribute.

Very Rev. Canon O'Dwyer, P.P., and Rev. Father McCarthy, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. Morrissey (widow); Thomas Morrissey (son); Mary and Patricia (daughters); Jack and David Morrissey (brothers); Mrs. Mary McMahon (sister); Mr. Philip Andrew (father-in-law); Mrs. J. Morrissey (sister-in-law); Mr. T. Andrew (brother-in-law); Mrs. C. Morrissey (daughter-in-law); John McMahon (nephew); Mary Morrissey (niece); Mrs. Andrew, Miss C.
Andrew, Phil, Tom and Gerard Andrew, Mr. P. Meehan, Miss M. Meehan and Mrs. K. Meehan (relatives).

The following sent Mass cards:—Your Loving Wife, Mary, Patricia and Grandad, Jack and Becky, Your Sister May, Tommie and Chrissie, Nell and May, Mr. and Mrs.
Andrew and family, Committee and members St. Munchin's Boat Club, Mr. C.
Meade, Mr. and Mrs. Troy, the Lane family, Mr. and Mrs. Scott and family, Mrs Michael Bowles and family, Mrs. Vaughan and family, Mrs. N. McCarthy and family, Mrs Bourke and family, Frank Bourke, Beatrice and Charlie Dunbar, R. and G.
Lyddy.

Wreaths from Jack and Becky and Neices.
