As time goes on it may be that a special committee will have to be formed to deal with this matter, but up to the present Limerick has been fortunate in the fewness of destitute refugees who arrived.

A special ambulance fund is being initiated this week, and it is hoped to have a number of these in the future, as well as about 20 converted vans.

Thirteen sub-branches have been supplied with two stretchers each and the balance can be supplied next week.

OBITUARY

MRS. MURPHY, THOMONDGATE.

It is with feelings of deep regret that we announce the death of Mrs. Mary Ann Murphy, 71 High Road, Thomondgate. This sad event took place on Monday morning in Barrington's Hospital, where she had undergone an operation some days previously. The deceased, who was a comparatively young woman, leaves a husband and young family to mourn the loss of a good wife and loving mother. She was of a quiet and unassuming disposition, and both herself and her relatives were held in high regard and esteem, as was exemplified by the many mourners and sympathisers who attended the removal of the remains from Barrington's Hospital to St. Munchin's Church on Monday night and the funeral on Tuesday to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

The chief mourners were—Mr. John Murphy (husband); Michael and Patrick (sons); Nellie, Babs and Maisie (daughters); Patrick, Thomas and James Ashe (brothers); Mrs. N. Walsh and Miss Josephine Ashe (sisters); Patrick and William Murphy and James Walsh (brothers-in-law); Miss M. Murphy (sister-in-law).

The clergy present were—Very Rev. Canon O'Dwyer, P.P., V.F., St. Munchin's; Rev. Father McCarthy, C.C., do.; Rev. Father Moloney, C.S.S.R.

WAR VICTIM

Private Tom Meehan, who died in London from wounds received in France, was a native of Abbeyfeale, Co. Limerick.

Dolis by Seamus Healy. A bright gossipy touch was given to the schoolmistress of Eithne and an earnest strength to the master of Fred Johnson. The list complete with a bouquet for the lightness of Cathleen Fawsitt Tansey. As a matter of record on paper the voice of Gerard Healy "came over" clearly, as the announcer. "The Rugged Path" presented again on Saturday night To-night and to-morrow night Robinson's fine comedy, "Far-o" will be produced.
