

POSITION.

two people are in when compared to ces. Had they not Republican Govern- ot be any question ts now.

at further discussed, o await Mr. Casey's ng concluded, sym- to Miss Crowley, ne's, and Mr. T. t bereavements.

POSITION

Finances

ths before the end Limerick Corpora- nce of £14,010. This osition is disclosed urn just issued, of isfactory feature is ars under the Arti- to show continued re for the financial st was £146,255, of spent during the m the current rate 1,891 arrears, while was collected from e rate collection is 7. On the current b, over £71,000 has ing a balance of ling, equivalent to

SCHOLARSHIPS

The C.A.O. said that the annual exam- Sination for the award of 15 Agricultural Scholarships to boys and 15 Scholarships in Rural Science and Domestic Economy for girls would be held during the first week in April. The Agricultural Scholar- ships were valued at £20 each and the Domestic Economy Scholarships, £25 each.

DEATH OF MISS K O'CONNOR

We regret to announce the death of Miss Kate O'Connor, which took place in the County Infirmery this morning, after a brief illness. She was a daughter of Mr. J. O'Connor, who conducted a bakery business in Gerald Griffin Street. Miss O'Connor was for the past thirty years a well-known licensed vintner in Clontarf Place, and during that long period she never offended against the licensing laws. She was most exacting in the conduct of her business, yet considerate and kind towards anyone in need of help or in distress. Miss O'Connor was a lady of culture, fond of read- ing and widely travelled. Places of pil- grimage, such as the Holy Land, Rome, Lourdes and Oberammergau had a charm for her. She was most observant, a good friend and an enjoyable com- panion. Her death has been learned with sincere sorrow by all who knew her, and sympathy given her relatives in thir bereavement.

MOUNT COOTE

Prices at Auction

least three of four There was a pier and the lorry driver view of about six other would have nil

John Leonard sta the lorry until it could not say what ling at. His car wa cost £17 to repair.

taken any action or processing him. He and knew it was a c

Peter Leonard, his heard his brother bl car. He could not speed the car was d say his brother had of the cross.

There were several cluding Mr. McGrath

The Justice gave a £1 expenses to Mr. I

Mr. Martin Tynan for Mr. McGrath, ar solicitor, Gort, for M

DANGER

LI

Clarecastle

Reference at L

Mr. L. Forde presi Limerick Board of yesterday.

The other memb Messrs. A. Blood-Sm Hayes, G. F. Gleasur citor; J. Cronin, J.

Mr. J. Daly, Secy attendance.

Mr. Blood Smith