

sed a small number
ing fatal.
t enemy aircraft
a large scale but
on a number of
and South Wales.
ne and only a few
ies."

y of Home Security
bringing the whole
thin the scope of
o. 16 A, which gives
issioners' authority,
l and direction of
e Security, to issue
er required for the
thin their respective

ERTURES?

reports that the
t Chungking was in Japanese Nanking
possibility of peace
n Office spokesman
plead ignorance of
n behind the scenes
e but undoubtedly
most conjectural.
to negotiate with
terms remains in
was free to do so if een Rumania and
ature of Southern ned at the Royal
is morning.

SHRINE

GRIMAGE FOR CE

Peace Pilgrimage to ace yesterday. Five
ts of buses brought
the 32 counties of
invalids—many of
es—were specially
ace before the altar

round the church,
atue of Our Lady of
1 from the county,
State—Mr. Derrig,
on and Lands, and
or Posts and Tele-
Borne walked. So

by the G.A.A. as a body.

Mr. O'Reilly said that it would do no harm to make a protest.

WOULD RESENT ANY UNDERHAND WORK.

The Secretary (Mr. J. O'Connell) said that what the Board should make clear was that if there was any underhand work going on that the Gaels of the county resent it.

The Chairman again pointed out that Mr. Roche had offered a greater amount for the farm than that which it was sold for.

Mr. O'Reilly said that they did not want any Englishman to come in and purchase the farm over Jim Roche's head.

ONLY WANT FAIR PLAY.

Chairman—We only want fair play for Jim Roche, and we don't want to deprive anybody of anything.

After further discussion, the resolution given above was proposed by Mr. O'Reilly, and seconded by Mr. J. Glynn, and passed unanimously.

The matter was not further discussed.

DEATH OF RETIRED N.T.

—oo—

A HIGHLY-ESTEEMED FIGURE

A highly-esteemed and deservedly very popular figure passed away in Limerick on Friday, 16th inst., in the person of Mr. John O'Dwyer, retired National Teacher. The deceased had been for a long period principal of Croagh National School, a position from which he retired on pension some years ago and came to reside in the city. A man of much culture and marked integrity, he was a very successful teacher and invariably got high reports from successive school inspectors. He was a prominent and active member of the Irish National Teachers Organisation and up to the end took a warm and practical interest in the welfare of that body and in the success of its activities. In private life he was of a kindly, sociable and courteous disposition and enjoyed a very wide measure of respect, popularity and confidence. Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul was offered up this morning at 10.30 in St. Michael's Church and the funeral to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery took place immediately afterwards.

JOINT DEFENCE

President Roosevelt and Mr. MacKenzie King, Canadian Prime Minister, have agreed to set up a Permanent Joint Board on Defence by the two countries. The Board will immediately begin studies of problems to consider the de-girls of the country. To that worked on the Vocational Comm his loss to that body will be irreparable.

Being a man of many parts O'Leary found time to interest in many other directions. As C of the Annacotty Creamery Soc contributed in no small mea the steady and continued progres concern. It should be recalled, when the Creamery Societies in were agitating for stabilised ma ditions, Canon O'Leary took a part in the movement, acting a man at some of the public meeti

INTEREST IN FAIR GREEN TENANTS.

His interest in, and concern tenants of the Fair Green houses strated the remarkable man Though the limelight, publicity riety were repugnant to him, he before the County Board of H different occasions to press for tion of the rents, which were pro onerous for the tenants. His ge eloquent, persuasive voice was again and again on behalf of th people—his humble parishioners.

His death has deprived the di a great Churchman and his pas been learned of with genuine re sorrow.

The remains will be remove o'clock this evening to St. John' dral, and the obsequies will beg noon to-morrow (Tuesday), the taking place at 2 p.m. to Mount rence Cemetery.

PLAYER'S FATHER DIED MATCH

The father of one of the player Leinster F.A. President's Cup p Milltown Park, Dublin, yest collapsed while watching the g was dead on admission to Baggo Hospital. He was Mr. George Jac 236, Clonard Road, Crumlin, wh George, was playing for St. Jame against Shamrock Rovers. Th was abandoned before half-time.

LIKE THE OLD DAYS

The Enniscorthy N.A.C.A. sp yesterday provided a performe miniscent of the old days of th