

ance in "The Rains Came" and Greene's latest performance in Little Princess." Now see them in one of the most moving and great films ever screened. It is a story of a woman who leaves her husband because of the future of their baby and how in later years the father and son are re-united. As the father, Richard Dix turns in one of the most fine performances of his long career, Richard Greene, as the son, is extraordinary. It is the film that one and all must see.

The supporting feature is "Riders of the West Basin," a western as thrilling as anything ever seen. It has 1,000 feet of racing through its swift tale of adventure and heroism. The stars are Mack Brown and Bob Baker.

THE THOMOND

"Don't Give Up the Ship" (Mon. and Tues.) with the amusing escapades of young adventuresses who help to bring up a prize fighter by playing on his pride of gallantry. The girls are Lynn and June Gale, and the prize fighter, Williams. June Withers is in the leading film, "Miss Fix-It," which shows her as a youngster crashing into trouble. The Jones family are naturally good and they are no exception. "Everybody's Baby" (Wednesday and Thursday). This introduces some of the most amusing moments in the bringing up of a child in the "Pilleoff psycho-analysis The support is "The Return of the Kid," featuring Cesar Romero and Hughes in a first-rate action picture. "Time Out for Murder" (Friday and Saturday) has plenty of slap-stick comedy, a well staged car chase and a great climax. It is in brief a murder mystery. The second picture is "Sing, Sing, Sing," which embraces hard fights and spectacular incidents.
There is also some good comedy and action of the cowboy order.

THE SAVOY

Only dark-tressed Andrea Leeds and Gary Cooper provide the romantic interest in Samuel Goldwyn's "The Real Thing," the new adventure drama about the heroic exploits of the Philippine heroes, which will be shown at the Savoy next week. Directed by Henry Hathaway, this new production features in its starring cast such top-notch players as Niven, Broderick Crawford, Paul Owen, Kay Johnson, Vladimir Iff, Russell Hicks and Henry Kolker.

The annual will be held on Thursday, 15th inst, when Our Lady's Well will again be the rendezvous of thousands, when fervent devotion will be made to our Blessed Lady. This year peace and protection for Ireland will be invoked and confidently so, considering that many favours have already been obtained here. Scenes of extraordinary piety are enacted, and it is indeed edifying to behold the large numbers wending their way slowly doing the rounds.

For that day a local committee have organised sports and entertainments for those who come to the well. This year a most celebrated and varied programme, has been prepared. A group of boys from the famous C.B.S., Limerick, will give a display of drill, dumb bells, bolas swinging, etc., etc. Many novelties have also been arranged, including barrel races, obstacle races, etc., and pillow fights will also take place. Miss Moynihan is kindly bringing the local pupils to give an exhibition of Irish dancing also, and that in itself would be feast enough.

A fancy dress parade will also be held, and the loud speaking van (which proved so popular at the races) will again be on the field. A great challenge hurling match between Mungret and Castletown will bring to a finish what should prove to be a most enjoyable day.
