Corpus Christi.

The Feast of Corpus Christi was observed in Glin with fitting ceremonial. At the conclusion of the last Mass a procession was formed up at the Church and proceeded through the principal streets, all of which were tastefully decorated for the occasion.

Blessed Sacrament.

The Most Blessed Sacrament was borne by Very Rev. Canon O'Carroll, P.P., assisted by Rev. Father McCarthy, C.C. Next came the children of the different schools, followed by the Church Choir and the members of the Confraternity and Sodalties. Sacred music was supplied during the progress of the procession by the band of St. Joseph's Orphanage.

Regretted Death.

The death, after a short illness, of Mr. M. J. O'Shaughnessy, Ivy House, Glin, only son of Mr. P. O'Shaughnessy, Co.C., has occasioned widespread regret and sorrow. He was a very popular figure, and heartfelt sympathy is felt for his family in their great bereavement. The funeral cortege was of immense proportions. Very Rev. Canon O'Carroll, P.P.; Rev. Father McCarthy, C.C., and Rev. Father Connolly, C.C. (Crecora), officiated at the graveside.
