

long way with him in tic fantasy.
rust the present visit of ll' be the forerunner of d eventually re-awaken ramatic instincts of the tion, and preserve—if stic traditions of an art s held high place in the izens for many years in ky days of old Limerick.

J. D. O'CONNOR.

tip for those who wish Within a few days from in this simple blanching teeth will be distinctly ror will show it plainly, will notice the improve-Hydroxide is the secret ertain chemistry in the uilest teeth brighten and t brand of Magnesium important, but is no
flik of Magnesia' brand can be obtained in a hpaste—Phillips' Dental this regularly and your iceably whiter. Phillips' contains 75% 'Milk of
; sold everywhere, 6d.,
ube. 'Milk of Magnesia' rk of Phillips' preparaay, of 12 Upper Mallow who died on December

eft personal estate in of the value of £2,375.

Caledonians Win Limerick Replay.

Caledonians, 4; Shelbourne, 2.

In the second replay of the Munster Junior Soccer Cup at Limerick on Sunday, Caledonians defeated Shelbourne by 4 goals to 2. It was a thrilling game, and extra time was necessary to decide the issue. Playing with the wind in the first half, Caledonians took the lead per Healy. In the second half M. O'Sullivan put Shelbourne ahead with two fine goals. With only three minutes to go, Caledonians were awarded a penalty, and T. Brown scored. In the extra time Dillon and T. Browne clinched the issue in Caledonians' favour with further goals.

HUSBAND AND WIFE

Funerals of Limerick Couple on Same Day.

The funerals of a husband and wife, Mr and Mrs Patrick Reddan, aged 60 and 57 years, respectively, of St. Senan Street, Limerick, took place to-day. The death of the husband took place on Saturday at the City Hospital, and the wife died in the same institution yesterday.

An I.O.C. bus and a private motor car were in collision at the junction of Cecil Street and O'Connell Street, but, fortunately, no damage was done. The rere of the motor car, which was driven by a lady, sustained some damage.

Question

The Mayor presided at the Harbour Board. The other members were J. Reidy, T.D., Messrs T. J. L., John Carew, Quinlan, B.C., and

The Department of Commerce wrote requesting the Board to contribute £600 towards the cost of a house, and inquiry had been made and agreed to make. The Secretary stated that no decision had been made and explained the matter.

Mr. Loughrey—£600 compensation for the boathouse, which is in connection with the Mayor—I have no objection to be given.

IMPROVEMENT

The Secretary reported on the last meeting four proposals for the improvement of the coasters, and threatened the port with an improvement.

YOUNG MAN

A young man was injured in Henry Street crossing the road. He was struck by a car and removed to hospital.