ellow-Sodalists, must influence those around us. We must neck, as far as we can, the eusuality that is even now to deluge our country. We to bring back Christ into our industrial and commerical eal and public life. Our duty our first rule is "to be good incerely bent on sanctifying ach in his state of life; and far as our condition of life serve and sanctify the neigh-

PASSES AWAY IN ENGLAND

With very much regret we announce the death of a Limerick priest in England in the person of Rev. Joseph Ryan, S.J., Mount St. Mary's College, Sheffield, who passed away on Wednesday last, 27th inst., after a brief illness. He was nephew of the late Stephen, James and Joseph Ryan, of Shannon Street, Limerick, and brother of Rev. Nicholas Ryan, S.J., Glasgow. The late Father Ryan was a well known figure in Limerick and conducted an English Catholic Troop of Boy Scouts when they visited this city in 1935.

INQUEST ON CITY CHILD ADJOURNED

Mr. J. S. McNeice, solicitor, Deputy Coroner, opened an inquest at Barring-ton's Hospital, Limerick, touching the circumstances of the death of Patrick Madden, aged 6 years, who died as a result of injuries received when struck by a lorry in Newenham Street on Friday last. Following evidence of identification the inquiry was
