LIMERICK COUNTY COUNCIL.

Regulations Governing the Exercise of Ratepayers to Inspect and Take Copies and extracts from the Books, Accounts and Documents Belonging to or under the Control of the County Council.

NOTICE.

1. Any elector seeking to exercise his right to inspect and take copies of and estimates from any books, accounts and documents belonging to or under the control of the Council must in the first instance fill in and sign a form of requisition specifying with sufficient particularity the book, account or document required by him for the purpose aforesaid and stating the time (subject to these regulations) when he wishes to inspect same.

2. Such form requisition may be obtained from the Enquiry Office at the Office of the Council, and when filled in either be delivered personally there or sent by post to the Secretary of the Council.

3. Such Books, Accounts or Documents will be produced for inspection and for the purpose of allowing the electors to take extracts between the hours of either 10 o'clock and 11 o'clock a.m., 4 to 5 o'clock p.m., and 10 o'clock to 11 o'clock on Saturdays, and at no other time.

4. In the event of the Book, account or Document called for being at the time of such requisition in actual use or required for the ordinary business of the Conception. Her father is the manager of the Irish-American Oil Co., Foynes, and chairman of the Foynes Development Association. Miss Mortimer is a very popular young lady here and her many friends offer their hearty congratulations.

Cloud Projector.

It is very interesting to watch the cloud projector throwing its mighty beam on to the base of the clouds during these winter nights. At the point of contact this light forms a bright cumulus, which gives the meteorologists the altitude. I am sure it can be seen for miles and must cause much speculation to the uninitiated. These are strange times and the ingenuity of man can very often put a singular construction on anything phenomenal.

Gun Club.

There are quite a number of sportsmen in this area and it is no surprise to find them forming a Foynes District Wood Club. They have taken a five year lease of the shooting rights from Leahys Cross to Ballynacragga. Mount Robert Wood is included in this. The following comprise the club—Lord Monteagle, President; Rev. Father Quinlan, C.C., Vice-president; Mr. J. Harte, Secretary and Treasurer; Rev. Father Quinlan, C.C., and Mr. E. Scales, trustees. Committee—Messrs. J. Finucane, J. King, P.C.; A. Little, J. Walsh and M. Walsh. The last mentioned in a very fine marksman, winning the recent clay pigeon shooting competition run by the Glin L.S.F. at their fete.

L.S.F. Equipment.

The first lot of L.S.F. uniforms, numbering fourteen, arrived a few weeks back. Last week about twenty more were received. Very soon every member will be fitted out. If the men are going to be supplied with strong boots, the force cannot but feel that the authorities have a good deal of respect for them. Respect begets respect and it will all tend towards producing a very effective branch of the National Defence.

Death.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Thomas Sheahan, uncle of Mr. John Sheahan, Ballynash, Foynes, which took place at his residence, Mohernagh, Ballyhahill. He had attained the grand old age of 82 years. He had been ill for some time but he bore it all with Christian fortitude and on December 1st passed to his reward.

The Obsequies.

On Monday the remains were conveyed to Ballyhahill Church. At noon next day the funeral, which showed much sympathy to his family, took place to Knockpatrick Cemetery. The officiating clergy were Rev. Father Ryan, P.P., Ballyhahill, and Rev. Father McDonnell, C.C., do.
