WEEKLY DAIRY MARKET.

day, May 7th—Numerical register the same as last week, but a much show of stock; not many high heifers. The attendance hardly as as recent markets, but was representative, a number of buyers wanting ass heifers. Trade had not the "swing" as last Tuesday, as buyers at the same standard to select from, were not willing to give last week's which in some cases owners held; this meant a cautious and stiffer trade. The right class met competition steady selling trade where accepted current values. There long demand for useful and promising; anything with pretensions to ad plenty of buyers and attracted competition. Fresh young cows in for attention and drew ready ition. All round trade was active or firm as last Tuesday, but heifers and cows made full values. story clearance. Top price for obtained by Mr. John Conway, ore House, Kilmallock, at £31. Top or cows went to Mr. M. McKenna Choice heifers, £26 10s. to £31; ing, £22 to £25 5s.; ordinary, £15 to ; cows, best, £20 10s. to £24; pro- £17 5s. to £20; ordinary, £12 to Wm. B. OBITUARY

MR. M. STACK, ABBEYFEALE
The death of Mr. Maurice Stack (57), coach builder, of New Street, Abbeyfeale, occurred after a long illness and is regretted by a large number of relatives and friends. Deceased was a member of one of the old native families of the town and was highly respected and popular amongst all classes. Of a quiet, amiable disposition, he had numerous friends and knew no enemy. Deceased was a well-known angler, and the father of Mr. Chris. Stack, a prominent member of the Abbeyfeale senior football team. The attendance at the removal of the remains to the local Parish Church, and at the interment next day in the old Abbey Cemetery, was of large proportions. Many expressions of sympathy were conveyed to the widow and family, and a large number of Mass cards were placed on the grave, where the prayers were said by the Very Rev. T. Canon Hogan, P.P., V.F.; Rev. J. Houlihan, C.C.; Rev. W. J. Meade, C.C.
