MR. JOHN MADDEN.

His numerous friends in Limerick—and they were legion—have learned with the deepest sorrow of the death of Mr. John Madden, which occurred at his residence, Janeboro, on Thursday night last under very sudden circumstances. "Jack" Madden, as he was endearingly called, was a splendid type of Irishman, possessing all the kindly traits of his race, and was beloved by everyone who had the pleasure of his company. One of nature's gentlemen, and a boon companion, he endeared himself by his genial manner and convivial spirit to a large circle of friends and the news of his sad demise has been received all over Limerick with feelings of the utmost sadness. For a number of years he was employed as mechanic in the Limerick Clothing Factory and during that period he won for himself the respect and admiration of his fellow-workers. A kind and loving father, his death is a severe blow to his family and relatives, all of whom were so affectionately attached to him, and by whom he will be deeply mourned. His love for the old country was unbounded and prior to his visit to America he was attached to B. Company, Limerick City 2nd Battalion, Old I.R.A., to whom he

MILK PRICES

POSITION IN LIMERICK

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Dear Sir—The retail price of new milk was raised in Limerick last week from 5d. to 5½d. per quart, or from 1/8 to 1/10 per gallon.

About the same time it was stated in the Press that the creamery representatives had requested the Government to take steps that would ensure an increase in the price of the milk of suppliers from 6½d. per gallon, now paid, to 8½d. or 9d., which was evidently considered a fair price.

This means that poor people in Limerick are asked to pay nearly 150 per cent. more than farmers supplying creameries would be satisfied with.

I would like to ask (1) Is this profiteering; (2) Is there a "milk ring"; and (3) Can anything be done? Yours truly, gave his unstinted services. During his stay in the States he continued to evince a keen interest in the struggle for Irish freedom. He was a devout member of Holy Church and was a jubilant of the Arch-Confraternity of the Holy Family attached to Mount St. Alphonsus.

"VIGILANT."

The funeral, which took place on last Sunday from St. John's Cathedral, was a striking manifestation of the genuine sorrow displayed for his bereaved family and relatives. To attempt to give a full list of those present would be difficult owing to the exceptionally large concourse who joined the funeral procession. Suffice it to say that every section of the community was represented.

The chief mourners were—William and Patrick Madden (sons), and family; Mrs. P. Liston, Blackboy Pike (daughter); Andrew Madden (brother); Bridget Madden (sister); Mrs. Madge Madden (daughter-in-law and family); Mr. Patrick Doyle, Pennywell, and Mr. James Doyle, Thomondgate (brothers-in-law and family); Mr. P. Liston, Blackboy Pike (son-in-law).

The clergy present were—Rev. Father Rice, P.P., and Rev. Father Ryan, Donoughmore; Rev. Father Kelly, Adm., St. John's, and Rev. Father Moran.

Rev. Father Rice, P.P., Donoughmore, officiated at the graveside.

To his sons and daughters and relatives in America we extend our sincere sympathy in the great loss they have sustained by his sad demise.
