

Sudden Illness

Death of Farmer in Co. Limerick

The death took place after a few hours illness of Mr Ed Coll, farmer, Ballyphillip Borroque, Croom. Deceased, who resided with his brother, was taken suddenly ill on Sunday morning. Rev T. Mortell, P. P. attended to give the last Rites and later deceased had medical attention, but passed away that day. Following removal of the remains to Borroque church, the interment took place at Croom on New Year's Day in the presence of a large procession of sympathisers. Rev Fr Mortell recited the last prayers at the graveside.

Much sympathy is extended to the surviving brother of the deceased and a wide circle of relatives.
