

Old I.R.A. Man

Fought With Mid-Clare Brigade

The death has occurred at St Joseph's Hospital, Kilrush, of Mr Griffey, Vandeleur street, Kilrush. The deceased belonged to the Mid-Clare Brigade Old I.R.A. during the Black and Tau war, and took part in numerous engagements, including the first attack on a police post at Inch, County Clare. He was interned in the autumn of 1917, when only 18 years of age, and underwent 21 days hunger-striko.