

City Fatality

Well-Known Citizen's Death

While walking along the Limerick docks on Monday morning Mr James Collins, Wolfe Tone street, had a heart seizure and expired in a short time. Spiritual aid was summoned and the rites of the Church were administered.

The late Mr Collins was an ex member of the R I C and was for some years local Inspector of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, a position from which he retired two years ago owing to failing health. Deep sympathy will be extended to the bereaved family.