

Quarrying Tragedy

---

Conny Man's Death

Mr D Keane, Glensharo'd, Shanagolden, has died in the County Infirmary, Limerick as a result of injuries last Thursday in a quarrying accident.

He was working as a carter in Moyreen Quarry where a large number of men are employed, when portion of the quarry gave way, pinning him beneath a large quantity of stones. The debris was cleared away in about a quarter of an hour, when it was found that Mr Keane was seriously injured.

Rushed to hospital he died on Saturday morning. He was of middle age and was married.

---