Child's Tragic Death

Playing With Revolver

Brian McNulty, aged 2 years, son of Detective Sergeant McNulty, Clonard Terrace, Rosbrien, Limerick, lost his life in very tragic circumstances on Saturday while playing in the house. An elder brother, aged about five years, discovered his father's revolver, and while handling it the weapon exploded, the bullet entering the child's forehead. He was immediately taken to hospital, where he died later.

The deepest sympathy is felt for the afflicted parents.
