Labourer Found Drowned at the Docks

Missing a Week.

The body of a middle aged man was found floating in the river Shannon near the gates leading to the floating docks at Limerick at about 5 o'clock this morning.

The body, which was fully clothed, was recovered from the river by the Guards and removed to the City Morgue, where it was identified as that of Samuel Benson, 61 Parnell street, Limerick.

The deceased was a labourer and married, and, it is stated, he has been missing since the 14th inst.

An inquest will be held.
