The Late Mr P. K. Hogan, Rathjordan House

It is with very sincere regret that we record the death of Mr P. K. Hogan, which occurred at his residence, Herbertstown, on Wednesday last. Deceased, who was an extensive farmer, was a splendid type of Irishman and up to the time of his retirement from public life some years ago, was an excellent public representative. He had been Chairman of the Limerick No 1 District Council, a prominent member of the Limerick County Council for years, and also represented East Limerick in the Dail, as well as taking a prominent part in the development of the creamery industry in his native county. After Office and Requiem Mass at Herbertstown Church on Friday morning, the funeral, which was of huge proportions, took place, the interment being at the family burial ground at Patrickswell.
