
Death of Master Thomas O'Driscoll

Deep sympathy will be felt for Mr Denis O'Driscoll, Corbally, and Mrs O'Driscoll, on the death of their eldest son, Thomas, who died in the Mater Hospital, Dublin, on Tuesday. The deceased, who was close on 18 years of age, was a very intelligent youth and gave promise of a brilliant future. The condolences of the citizens will go out unstintedly to the family in their great bereavement.

At the meeting of the Corporation on Tuesday night a vote of sympathy was passed on the proposition of Ald Reidy.
