
Ex-New Zealand Soldier

Found Drowned in the Shannon

A verdict of found drowned was returned at an inquest held at the Co. Courthouse, Limerick on Monday by Dr P Clery, East Limerick Coroner, on Michael Carrick, 65, whose body was recovered from the river Shannon at Barrington's Pier on Saturday evening. Deceased, who was an ex-New Zealand soldier, lived in lodgings in Davis street. He was a native of Hunis, and had been missing for some days.