

Well-Known Limerick Lady's Death

The death of Mrs Ann McCarthy in a Dublin Nursing Home has been learned with sincere regret in Limerick, where the deceased was widely known and respected. She was principal of the firm of Messrs R McCarthy and Sons, hide merchants, one of the best known firms in the South of Ireland. Endowed with a high degree of intelligence and business acumen, deceased was a lady of much personal charm, and in private life was an active worker and supporter of many charitable institutions.

She was mother of Rev C McCarthy, c s s r, St Joseph's, Dundaik; and of Mr Richard McCarthy, a popular young citizen, to whom, with the other members of the family, general sympathy is extended.
