
Limerick Solicitor Dead

The death in a Dublin hospital is announced of Mr Patrick O'Brien, solicitor, Bruff, at a comparatively early age. The deceased served for about twenty years in the Indian Civil Service. He was brother-in-law of Mr T J Clifford, District Court Clerk, Ballyneesty. The remains arrived by road at Fedamore church and the funeral took place to Cahernorry.
